OR2013-03827

Dear Ms. Brown:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 480711 (Plano PD# BURD121212 and MEIJ020113).

The Plano Police Department (the "department") received two requests for information pertaining to a specified incident involving a named individual. You state you have released some of the requested information. We understand you have redacted certain information pursuant to section 552.130(c) of the Government Code.<sup>1</sup> You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code.<sup>2</sup>

<sup>1</sup>Section 552.130(c) of the Government Code authorizes a governmental body to redact, without the necessity of requesting an attorney general decision, information described in subsections 552.130(a)(1) and (a)(3). See Gov't Code § 552.130(c). If a governmental body redacts such information, it must notify the requestor in accordance with section 552.130(e). See id. § 552.130(d)-(e) (requestor may appeal governmental body's decision to withhold information under section 552.130(c) to attorney general and governmental body withholding information pursuant to section 552.130(c) must provide certain notice to requestor).

<sup>2</sup>We note you have marked a social security number under section 552.101 of the Government Code. However, we further note section 552.147(b) of the Government Code authorizes a governmental body to redact a living person's social security number from public release without the necessity of requesting an attorney general decision under the Act. See Gov't Code § 552.147(b).

We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.<sup>3</sup>

Section 552.108(a)(1) excepts from disclosure “[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]” Gov’t Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body claiming section 552.108 must reasonably explain how and why the release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You state the requested information pertains to a pending criminal investigation, and its release would interfere with the investigation and prosecution of the case. Based upon this representation, we agree section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code is applicable to the information at issue. See Houston Chronicle Publ’g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref’d n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976).

However, section 552.108 does not except from disclosure basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime. Gov’t Code § 552.108(c). Section 552.108(c) refers to the basic front-page offense and arrest information held to be public in Houston Chronicle. See 531 S.W.2d at 186-88; see also Open Records Decision No. 127 at 3-4 (1976) (summarizing types of information deemed public by Houston Chronicle). We note basic information does not include motor vehicle record information subject to section 552.130 of the Government Code. Thus, with the exception of the basic information, the department may withhold the submitted information from the second requestor and generally withhold the submitted information from the first requestor under section 552.108(a)(1).

However, as you acknowledge, the first requestor is an investigator with the Texas Board of Nursing (the “board”). Section 411.125 of the Government Code provides:

The [board] is entitled to obtain from the [Department of Public Safety] criminal history record information maintained by the [Department of Public Safety] that relates to a person who:

(1) is an applicant for or holder of a license issued by the board;

<sup>3</sup>We assume the “representative sample” of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent that those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

(2) has requested a determination of eligibility for a license from the board; or

(3) is subject to investigation by the board in connection with a complaint or formal charge against the person.

Gov't Code § 411.125. In addition, section 411.087(a) of the Government Code provides in pertinent part:

(a) [A] person, agency, department, political subdivision, or other entity that is authorized by this subchapter to obtain from the [Department of Public Safety] criminal history record information maintained by the [Department of Public Safety] that relates to another person is authorized to:

(2) obtain from any other criminal justice agency in this state criminal history record information maintained by that criminal justice agency that relates to that person.

Id. § 411.087(a)(2). “Criminal history record information” is defined as “information collected about a person by a criminal justice agency that consists of identifiable descriptions and notations of arrests, detentions, indictments, informations, and other formal criminal charges and their dispositions.” Id. § 411.082(2). Thus, under sections 411.125 and 411.087, the requestor may have a right of access to any criminal history record information about the named individual contained in the department’s records. The submitted police report lists the named individual as an arrested person. Thus, the report may contain criminal history record information about this individual.

You inform us the individual at issue in the submitted report is a holder of a license issued by the board. Accordingly, the first requestor is authorized to obtain the criminal history record information in the submitted report from the department pursuant to section 411.087(a)(2) of the Government Code. See id. §§ 411.087(a)(2), .082(2), .125(a). Thus, the department must make available to the first requestor criminal history record information under section 411.087. See Open Records Decision No. 451 (1986) (specific statutory right of access provisions overcome general exceptions to disclosure under the Act). However, with the exception of basic information, the department may withhold the remaining information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.

In summary, with the exception of basic information, the department may withhold the submitted information from the second requestor under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. With the exception of criminal history record information that must be made available under section 411.087 of the Government Code and basic information, the department may withhold the remaining information from the first requestor under section 552.108(a)(1).

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index\_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act must be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the Office of the Attorney General, toll free at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,
