Dear Mr. Galindo:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 481374 (PIR No. 12-35116).

The Office of the Attorney General (the "OAG") received a request for information pertaining to victim compensation claim number VC12234012. The OAG released most of the information and asserts the remainder is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the OAG's claimed exception and have reviewed the submitted sample of information.¹

Section 552.108(a)(1) excepts from disclosure information held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime if release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(1). By its terms, section 552.108 applies only to a law enforcement agency or a prosecutor. This office has concluded, however, that where an incident involving ¹We assume the representative sample of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

alleged criminal conduct is still under active investigation or prosecution, section 552.108 may be invoked by any proper custodian of information that relates to the incident. See Open Records Decision Nos. 474 (1987), 372 (1983). Where a non-law enforcement agency is in the custody of information relating to the pending case of a law enforcement agency, the custodian of the records may withhold the information if it provides this office with a demonstration that the information relates to the pending case and a representation from the law enforcement entity that it wishes to withhold the information.

The OAG received the information from the Houston Police Department (the "department") and thus informed it of the request. The department asks the OAG to withhold report numbers 026876012K and 149300311Q from disclosure so as not to interfere with ongoing criminal investigations. Based on these representations, we agree release of the information will interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ'g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). Accordingly, the OAG may withhold report numbers 026876012K and 149300311Q pursuant to section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.

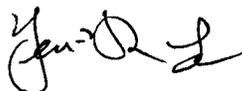

Section 552.108(a)(2) excepts from disclosure information held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor concerning an investigation that concluded in a result other than conviction or deferred adjudication. Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(2). A governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(2) must demonstrate the requested information relates to a criminal investigation that has concluded in a final result other than a conviction or deferred adjudication. By its terms, section 552.108 applies only to a law enforcement agency or a prosecutor. This office has concluded, however, that section 552.108 may be invoked by any proper custodian of information that relates to the incident. See Open Records Decision Nos. 474 (1987), 372 (1983). Where a non-law enforcement agency is in the custody of information relating to a concluded criminal case of a law enforcement agency, the custodian of the records may withhold the information if it provides this office with a demonstration that the information relates to the criminal case that has reached a conclusion other than a conviction or deferred adjudication and a representation from the law enforcement entity that it wishes to withhold the information.

The department asks the OAG to withhold report number 148945207X from disclosure because the information relates to a concluded criminal investigation that did not result in conviction or deferred adjudication. Based on this representation, we agree the OAG may withhold report number 148945207X pursuant to section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code.
