Mr. G. Brian Garrison
Assistant District Attorney
Dallas County District Attorney's Office

OR2013-04316

Dear Mr. Garrison:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 483802.

The Dallas County District Attorney's Office (the "district attorney's office") received a request for information pertaining to a specified conviction and a named individual. You claim the requested information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 through 552.152 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim.

Initially, we must address the procedural obligations of the district attorney's office under section 552.301 of the Government Code, which prescribes the procedures that a governmental body must follow in asking this office to decide whether requested information is excepted from public disclosure. Pursuant to section 552.301(e), a governmental body must submit to this office within fifteen business days of receiving an open records request (1) written comments stating the reasons why the stated exceptions apply that would allow the information to be withheld, (2) a copy of the written request for information, (3) a signed statement or sufficient evidence showing the date the governmental body received the written request, and (4) a copy of the specific information requested or representative samples, labeled to indicate which exceptions apply to which parts of the documents. Gov't Code § 552.301(e). The district attorney's office received the request for information on January 29, 2013. Thus, the fifteen-business-day deadline of the district attorney's office under section 552.301(e) was February 20, 2013. However, as of this date of this letter, the district attorney's office has not submitted written comments regarding the stated exceptions or a copy or representative samples of the requested information. Therefore, the district attorney's office failed to comply with the procedural requirements mandated by section 552.301(e).

Pursuant to section 552.302 of the Government Code, a governmental body's failure to comply with the procedural requirements of section 552.301 results in the legal presumption that the requested information is public and must be released unless the governmental body demonstrates a compelling reason to withhold the information from disclosure. See id. § 552.302; Simmons v. Kuzmich, 166 S.W.3d 342, 350 (Tex. App.—Fort Worth 2005, no pet.); Hancock v. State Bd. of Ins., 797 S.W.2d 379, 381 (Tex. App.—Austin 1990, no writ); see also Open Records Decision No. 630 (1994). By failing to comply with section 552.301, you have waived the discretionary exceptions you raised. See Open Records Decision No. 522 (1989) (discretionary exceptions in general). Furthermore, because you have not submitted the information to this office for our review, we have no basis for finding it confidential under the claimed mandatory exceptions. Therefore, we have no choice but to order the district attorney's office to release the responsive information in accordance with section 552.302 of the Government Code. If the district attorney's office believes the information is confidential and may not lawfully be released, the district attorney's office must challenge this ruling in court pursuant to section 552.324 of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. Sincerely,

James L. Coggeshall
Assistant Attorney General
