

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

April 29, 2013

Ms. Cheryl K. Byles
Assistant City Attorney
Office of the City Attorney
City of Fort Worth
1000 Throckmorton Street, 3rd Floor
Fort Worth, Texas 76102

OR2013-07001

Dear Ms. Byles:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 485571 (PIR No. W023641).

The City of Fort Worth (the "city") received a request for information pertaining to a specified determination, petition, and Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC") Charge of Discrimination. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code.¹ We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

You state the submitted information was compiled by the city's Human Relations Unit (the "unit") in the course of its investigation of an employment discrimination claim filed under section 21.201 of the Labor Code. See Labor Code § 21.201 (person claiming to be aggrieved by unlawful employment practice or person's agent may file complaint with Texas Workforce Commission ("TWC")). You state the unit was created under chapter 21 of the ¹Although you also raise section 552.108 of the Government Code, you have provided no arguments in support of the applicability of that exception. Therefore, the city may not withhold any of the submitted information under section 552.108. See Gov't Code §§ 552.301(e)(1)(A) (governmental body must provide written comments in support of applicability of each exception it claims), .302; see also id. § 552.007; Open Records Decision Nos. 665 at 2 n.5 (2000) (discretionary exceptions generally), 663 at 5 (1999) (waiver of discretionary exceptions), 177 at 3 (1977) (statutory predecessor to Gov't Code § 552.108 subject to waiver).

Labor Code. See id. § 21.152 (providing for creation of local commissions). We also understand pursuant to chapter 21, both the EEOC and the TWC have deferred jurisdiction to hear complaints to the unit. See id. § 21.154 (authorizing deferral of jurisdiction to local commissions); see also 40 T.A.C. § 819.76 (authorizing workshare agreements between the TWC and local commissions). Thus, under section 21.152 of the Labor Code, the unit is a local agency authorized to investigate and resolve complaints of employment discrimination. See Labor Code §§ 21.154 (authorizing local commission to which complaint is referred or jurisdiction is deferred to receive, investigate, conciliate, or rule on complaint), .204 (relating to investigation of complaints by the TWC).

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts “information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision.” Gov’t Code § 552.101. This exception encompasses information that other statutes make confidential. Section 21.304 of the Labor Code, which relates to public release of information obtained by the TWC, provides as follows:

An officer or employee of the [TWC] may not disclose to the public information obtained by the [TWC] under Section 21.204 except as necessary to the conduct of a proceeding under this chapter.

Labor Code § 21.304. The submitted information pertains to a complaint of unlawful employment discrimination. We note the requestor is an attorney representing a party to the complaint filed under section 21.201 of the Labor Code. Section 21.305 of the Labor Code concerns the release of records to a party to a complaint filed under section 21.201 of the Labor Code and provides as follows:

(a) Except as provided by Subsection (c), the [TWC] shall adopt rules allowing a party to a complaint filed under Section 21.201 reasonable access to [TWC] records relating to the complaint.

(b) Except as provided by Subsection (c), unless the complaint is resolved through a voluntary settlement or conciliation, on the written request of a party the executive director shall allow the party access to the [TWC] records:

(1) after the final action of the [TWC]; or

(2) if a civil action relating to the complaint is filed in federal court alleging a violation of federal law.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 552.023, Government Code, the following information is not considered public information for the purposes of

Chapter 552, Government Code, and may not be disclosed to a party to a complaint filed under Section 21.201:

- (1) identifying information of persons other than the parties and witnesses to the complaint;
- (2) identifying information about confidential witnesses, including any confidential statement given by the witness;
- (3) sensitive medical information about the charging party or a witness to the complaint that is:
 - (A) provided by a person other than the person requesting the information; and
 - (B) not relevant to issues raised in the complaint, including information that identifies injuries, impairments, pregnancies, disabilities, or other medical conditions that are not obviously apparent or visible;
- (4) identifying information about a person other than the charging party that is found in sensitive medical information regardless of whether the information is relevant to the complaint;
- (5) nonsensitive medical information that is relevant to the complaint if the disclosure would result in an invasion of personal privacy, unless the information is generally known or has been previously reported to the public;
- (6) identifying information about other respondents or employers not a party to the complaint;
- (7) information relating to settlement offers or conciliation agreements received from one party that was not conveyed to the other and information contained in a separate alternative dispute resolution file prepared for mediation purposes; and
- (8) identifying information about a person on whose behalf a complaint was filed if the person has requested that the person's identity as a complaining party remain confidential.

(d) In this section, "identifying information" has the meaning assigned by Section 32.51, Penal Code.

Labor Code § 21.305. You state final agency action has been taken in this case. Further, you do not state the complaint was resolved through a voluntary settlement or conciliation agreement. We note subsection 21.305(c) identifies eight categories of information not considered public information for the purposes of chapter 552 and which may not be disclosed to a party to a complaint filed under section 21.201. Pursuant to section 21.305, the requestor generally has a right of access to the city's records relating to the complaint. However, the city must withhold any information subject to subsection (c) under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 21.305(a) of the Labor Code.

You also raise section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy for the submitted information.² Further, you indicate you will redact information under section 552.137 of the Government Code pursuant to Open Records Decision No. 684 (2009) and a social security number under section 552.147(b) of the Government Code.³ We note, however, sections 552.137 and 552.147 are general exceptions to disclosure under the Act. A specific statutory right of access prevails over the common law and general exceptions to disclosure under the Act. Collins v. Tex Mall, L.P., 297 S.W.3d 409, 415 (Tex. App.—Fort Worth 2009, no pet.) (statutory provision controls and preempts common law only when statute directly conflicts with common-law principle); CenterPoint Energy Houston Elec. LLC v. Harris County Toll Rd., 436 F.3d 541, 544 (5th Cir. 2006) (common law controls only where there is no conflicting or controlling statutory law); see also Open Records Decision No. 613 at 4 (1993) (exceptions in Act cannot impinge on statutory right of access to information). Because the requestor, in this instance, has a statutory right of access to the information at issue, the city may not withhold the submitted information under section 552.101 in conjunction with common-law privacy. Further, the city may not redact any information under sections 552.137 and 552.147 of the Government Code. Accordingly, except as provided by subsection 21.305(c) of the Labor Code, the city must release the submitted information.⁴

²Section 552.101 also encompasses the common-law right to privacy, which protects information if it (1) contains highly intimate or embarrassing facts, the publication of which would be highly objectionable to a reasonable person, and (2) is not of legitimate concern to the public. Indus. Found. v. Tex. Indus. Accident Bd., 540 S.W.2d 668, 685 (Tex. 1976).

³We note this office issued Open Records Decision No. 684, a previous determination to all governmental bodies authorizing them to withhold ten categories of information, including an e-mail address of a member of the public under section 552.137 of the Government Code, without the necessity of requesting an attorney general decision unless authorized to release the information according to applicable law. Section 552.147 of the Government Code authorizes a governmental body to redact a living person's social security number from public release without the necessity of requesting a decision from this office. See Gov't Code § 552.147(b).

⁴The requestor has a special right of access to the submitted information. If the city receives another request for this particular information from a different requestor, then the city should again seek a decision from this office.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/index_orl.php, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act must be directed to the Cost Rules Administrator of the Office of the Attorney General, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,
