Dear Mr. Galindo:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under chapter 552 of the Government Code, the Public Information Act (the "Act"). Your request was assigned ID# 490085 (PIR No. 13-35715).

The Office of the Attorney General (the "OAG") received a request for offense report number 08-00056. As permitted by section 552.130(c) of the Government Code, the OAG redacted information relating to a driver's license subject to section 552.130(a)(1) of the Government Code without requesting a decision from this office. Gov't Code § 552.130(c) (governmental body authorized to redact, without necessity of requesting decision from this office, driver's license information described in subsection 552.130(a)(1)). Pursuant to section 552.130(d), the requestor has asked this office to review this information and render a decision as to whether this information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.130. Id. § 552.130(d) (requestor may appeal governmental body's decision to withhold information under section 552.130(c) to attorney general). The OAG has provided the information to this office in response to the requestor seeking a ruling from this office regarding whether or not the information the OAG redacted under section 552.130 is so excepted.

Section 552.130(a)(1) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure information relating to a driver's license issued by an agency of this state or another state or country. Id. § 552.130(a)(1). Upon review, we find the OAG must withhold the driver's license information we have marked under section 552.130(a)(1) of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
