Dear Ms. Allen:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 489822 (Ref. No. 60176).

The City of Rowlett (the "city"), which you represent, received a request for (1) "any police records or call slips made by" a named individual; (2) the police records from a specified call to the city's police department by the requestor; and (3) two specified police reports. You state you will redact social security numbers pursuant to section 552.147(b) of the Government Code.¹ You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.108, and 552.130 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Initially, we note you have not submitted for our review one of the specified police reports. To the extent such information was maintained by the city on the date the city received the request, we assume you have released it. See Open Records Decision No. 664 (2000) (if governmental body concludes that no exceptions apply to requested information, it must release information as soon as possible). If you have not released any such records, you must do so at this time. See Gov't Code §§ 552.301(a), .302.

¹Section 552.147(b) of the Government Code authorizes a governmental body to redact a living person's social security number from public release without the necessity of requesting a decision from this office under the Act. Gov't Code § 552.147(b). We note, however, the requestor has a right of access to her own social security number. See id. § 552.023(a); Open Records Decision No. 481 at 4 (1987).

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Id. § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses section 261.201 of the Family Code, which states:

(a) Except as provided by Section 261.203, the following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under Chapter 552, Government Code, and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

(1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and

(2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

(k) Notwithstanding Subsection (a), an investigating agency, other than the [Texas Department of Family and Protective Services] or the Texas Youth Commission, on request, shall provide to the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of a child who is the subject of reported abuse or neglect, or to the child if the child is at least 18 years of age, information concerning the reported abuse or neglect that would otherwise be confidential under this section. The investigating agency shall withhold information under this subsection if the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of the child requesting the information is alleged to have committed the abuse or neglect.

(l) Before a child or a parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of a child may inspect or copy a record or file concerning the child under Subsection (k), the custodian of the record or file must redact:

(2) any information that is excepted from required disclosure under Chapter 552, Government Code, or other law[.]

Fam. Code § 261.201(a), (k), (l)(2). You assert report number 12003800 is confidential under section 261.201 of the Family Code. Upon review, we agree this information was used or developed in an investigation of alleged or suspected child abuse under chapter 261 of the Family Code, so as to fall within the scope of section 261.201(a). See id. § 261.001(1)(E) (definition of “abuse” for purposes of chapter 261 of the Family Code includes sexual assault under Penal Code section 22.011); see also Penal Code § 22.011(c)(1) (defining “child” for purposes of sections 22.011 as “a person younger than 17 years of age”). We note, the requestor in this case is the parent of the child named in the report, and the requestor is not accused of committing the abuse. Accordingly, the city may not withhold from this requestor information concerning the alleged abuse or neglect that would otherwise be confidential under section 261.201(a). See Fam. Code § 261.201(k). However, section 261.201(l)(2) provides information subject to any other exception to disclosure under the Act or other law must be redacted. Id. § 261.201(l)(2). Thus, we will consider the applicability of other exceptions to disclosure to this information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses section 58.007 of the Family Code which provides in relevant part:

(c) Except as provided by Subsection (d), law enforcement records and files concerning a child and information stored, by electronic means or otherwise, concerning the child from which a record or file could be generated may not be disclosed to the public and shall be:

(1) if maintained on paper or microfilm, kept separate from adult files and records;

(2) if maintained electronically in the same computer system as records or files relating to adults, be accessible under controls that are separate and distinct from controls to access electronic data concerning adults; and

(3) maintained on a local basis only and not sent to a central state or federal depository, except as provided by Subchapters B, D, and E.

Id. § 58.007(c). Juvenile law enforcement records relating to delinquent conduct by a child that occurred on or after September 1, 1997 are confidential under section 58.007(c). See id. § 51.03(a) (defining “delinquent conduct”). For purposes of section 58.007(c), a “child” is a person who is ten years of age or older and under seventeen years of age at the time of the reported conduct. See id. § 51.02(2). Upon review, we find report number 12003800 involves a child allegedly engaged in delinquent conduct that occurred after September 1, 1997. You do not indicate, nor does it appear, that any of the exceptions in section 58.007 apply to this information. Thus, report number 12003800 is confidential in its entirety pursuant to section 58.007(c) of the Family Code, and the city must withhold it under section 552.101 of the Government Code.²

Section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure information concerning an investigation that concluded in a result other than conviction or deferred adjudication. Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(2). A governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(2) must demonstrate that the requested information relates to a criminal investigation that concluded in a final result other than a conviction or deferred adjudication. See id. § 552.301(e)(1)(A) (governmental body must provide comments explaining why exceptions raised should apply to information requested). You state report numbers 11043110 and 13011882 pertain to criminal investigations that concluded without charges being filed. Based on your representation, we agree section 552.108(a)(2) is applicable to the information at issue.

However, section 552.108 does not except from disclosure basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime. Id. § 552.108(c). Basic information refers to the information held to be public in Houston Chronicle Publishing Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). See Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976) (summarizing types of information deemed public by Houston Chronicle). We note basic information does not include motor vehicle record information encompassed by section 552.130 of the Government Code. See Gov't Code § 552.130. Accordingly, with the exception of basic information, the city may withhold report numbers 11043110 and 13011882 pursuant to section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code.³

Section 552.130 of the Government Code provides information relating to a motor vehicle operator's license, driver's license, motor vehicle title or registration, or personal identification document issued by an agency of this state or another state or country is excepted from public release. See Gov't Code § 552.130. Upon review, we find none of the remaining information is subject to section 552.130 and none of it may be withheld on that basis.

In summary, the city must withhold report number 12003800 in its entirety under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007(c) of the Family Code. With the exception of basic information, the city may withhold report numbers 11043110 and 13011882 pursuant to section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code. The remaining information must be released.

²As our ruling is dispositive, we need not address your remaining argument against disclosure.
