June 26, 2013

Mr. John R. Batoon
Assistant City Attorney
City of El Paso
P.O. Box 1890
El Paso, Texas 79950-1890

OR2013-10880

Dear Mr. Batoon:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 491369.

The El Paso Police Department (the "department") received a request for a specified incident report. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information protected by other statutes, such as section 58.007 of the Family Code which provides in relevant part:

(c) Except as provided by Subsection (d), law enforcement records and files concerning a child and information stored, by electronic means or otherwise, concerning the child from which a record or file could be generated may not be disclosed to the public and shall be:

(1) if maintained on paper or microfilm, kept separate from adult files and records;

(2) if maintained electronically in the same computer system as records or files relating to adults, be accessible under controls that are separate and distinct from controls to access electronic data concerning adults; and

(3) maintained on a local basis only and not sent to a central state or federal depository, except as provided by Subchapters B, D, and E.

(e) Law enforcement records and files concerning a child may be inspected or copied by a juvenile justice agency as that term is defined by Section 58.101, a criminal justice agency as that term is defined by Section 411.082, Government Code, the child, and the child's parent or guardian.

...

(j) Before a child or a child's parent or guardian may inspect or copy a record or file concerning the child under Subsection (e), the custodian of the record or file shall redact:

...

(2) any information that is excepted from required disclosure under [the Act] or other law.

Fam. Code § 58.007(c), (e), (j)(2). Upon review, we find the submitted report involves a juvenile runaway. Thus, this information involves a juvenile engaged in conduct indicating a need for supervision and is subject to section 58.007. See id. § 51.03(b) (defining "conduct indicating a need for supervision" to include "the voluntary absence of a child from the child's home without the consent of the child's parent or guardian for a substantial length of time or without intent to return"). However, it appears that the requestor may be a parent of the juvenile runaway in the submitted report. Under section 58.007(e), a child's parent has a right to inspect or copy law enforcement records concerning her own child. See id. § 58.007(e). Accordingly, if the requestor is not the parent of the juvenile runaway, then the department must withhold the submitted report in its entirety under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007(c) of the Family Code. However, if the requestor is a parent of the juvenile runaway, the requestor has a right to inspect law enforcement records concerning her child under section 58.007(e). See id. Section 58.007(j), however, provides that information subject to any other exception to disclosure under the Act or other law must be redacted. See id. § 58.007(j)(2). Accordingly, we will address section 552.130 of the Government Code.

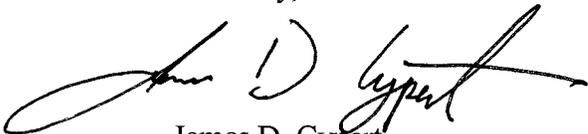

Section 552.130 provides that information relating to a motor vehicle title or registration issued by a Texas agency, or an agency of another state or country, is excepted from public release.¹ See Gov't Code § 552.130(a)(2). Upon review, we find the department must withhold the license plate information we have marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code.²

In summary, if the requestor is not a parent of the juvenile runaway listed in the submitted report, then the department must withhold the report at issue in its entirety under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007(c) of the Family Code. If the requestor is a parent of the juvenile runaway, with the exception of the information we have marked under section 552.130, the department must release the submitted report to the requestor pursuant to section 58.007(e) of the Family Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
