

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

July 2, 2013

Ms. Laurie B. Hobbs
Assistant General Counsel
Office of Consumer Credit Commissioner
2601 North Lamar Boulevard
Austin, Texas 78705

OR2013-11240

Dear Ms. Hobbs:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 492025 (OCCC file # OR-13-181).

The Office of Consumer Credit Commissioner (the "commissioner's office") received a request for correspondence, orders, and documentation of the commissioner's office's secondary review of a named software program. You state you will redact a personal e-mail address under section 552.137 of the Government Code pursuant to Open Records Decision No. 684 (2009).¹ Although you take no position as to whether the remaining information is excepted under the Act, you state release of this information may implicate the proprietary interests of Xceldata, Inc. ("Xceldata"). Accordingly, you state, and provide documentation showing, you notified Xceldata of the request for information and of its right to submit arguments to this office as to why the remaining information should not be released. See Gov't Code § 552.305(d); see also Open Records Decision No. 542 (1990) (statutory predecessor to section 552.305 permits governmental body to rely on interested third party to raise and explain applicability of exception in the Act in certain circumstances). We have reviewed the submitted information.

An interested third party is allowed ten business days after the date of its receipt of the governmental body's notice under section 552.305(d) to submit its reasons, if any, as to why information relating to that party should be withheld from public disclosure. See Gov't Code § 552.305(d)(2)(B). As of the date of this letter, we have not received comments from Xceldata explaining why its information should not be released. Therefore, we have no basis to conclude Xceldata has a protected proprietary interest in the submitted information.

¹Open Records Decision No. 684 is a previous determination to all governmental bodies authorizing the withholding of certain information, including e-mail addresses of members of the public under section 552.137 of the Government Code, without the necessity of requesting an attorney general decision.

See id. § 552.110; Open Records Decision Nos. 661 at 5-6 (1999) (to prevent disclosure of commercial or financial information, party must show by specific factual evidence, not conclusory or generalized allegations, that release of requested information would cause that party substantial competitive harm), 552 at 5 (1990) (party must establish prima facie case that information is trade secret), 542 at 3. Accordingly, the commissioner's office may not withhold any of the remaining information on the basis of any proprietary interest Xceldata may have in it. As no exceptions to disclosure have been raised, the remaining information must be released.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open/orl_ruling_info.shtml, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act may be directed to the Office of the Attorney General, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

Kristi L. Wilkins
Assistant Attorney General
