Dear Ms. Brown:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 492168 (Plano Tracking No. GRAD041113).

The Plano Police Department (the "department") received a request for 1) the name of the department's "IT person," 2) standard operating procedures regarding videos of DWI arrests, 3) information regarding a named officer, 4) the number of DWI arrests made by the named officer since his hire date, and 5) computer aided dispatch data ("CAD") and mobile data terminal ("MDT") transmissions involving the named officer during a specified time period. You state the department has released information responsive to categories one and two of the request. You further state the department does not maintain information responsive to category four of the request.¹ You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]" Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body claiming section 552.108 must reasonably explain how and why the release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You state the CAD and MDT records in Exhibit E pertain to a pending prosecution with the Collin County District Attorney's Office (the "district attorney's office"). Additionally, you state the personnel records in Exhibit D pertain to an officer who is scheduled to be a witness in the pending prosecution. You state the officer's personnel information "could be used at trial to undermine the officer's credibility, his competency to testify, and his qualifications as an expert witness." You further state that the district attorney's office objects to release of the submitted information because its release would interfere with the pending prosecution. Based on your representation and our review, we conclude the release of this information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ'g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). Thus, section 552.108(a)(1) is applicable to the submitted information.

However, section 552.108 does not except from disclosure basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime. Gov't Code § 552.108(c). Basic information refers to the information held to be public in Houston Chronicle. See 531 S.W.2d at 186-87; Open Records Decision No. 127 at 3-4 (1976) (summarizing types of information deemed public by Houston Chronicle). Therefore, with the exception of basic information, which must be released, the department may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
