

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

July 16, 2013

Mr. Carey E. Smith
General Counsel
Texas Health and Human Services Commission
P.O. Box 13247
Austin, Texas 78711

OR2013-12119

Dear Mr. Smith:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 493478.

The Texas Health and Human Services Commission (the "commission") received a request for information pertaining to a specified investigation involving the requestor. You claim the requested information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Initially, you contend the submitted information is subject to Open Records Letter Nos. 2004-8876 (2004) and 2004-8357 (2004). These previous determinations permitted the commission to withhold certain information compiled and maintained by the commission's Office of Inspector General (the "OIG") under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 531.1021(g) of the Government Code, without requesting a decision from this office. However, as you acknowledge, in 2011 the Texas legislature amended section 531.1021(g). See Act of May 20, 2011, 82nd Leg., R.S., S.B. 688, § 4 (codified as section 531.1021(g) of the Government Code). Therefore, the law on which Open Records Letter Nos. 2004-8876 and 2004-8357 were based has changed and the commission may not rely on either of these rulings as previous determinations. See Open Records Decision No. 673 (2001) (listing elements of second type of previous determination under section 552.301(a) of the Government Code). Therefore, we will address your argument under section 552.101 of the Government Code against disclosure of the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision.” Gov’t Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information protected by other statutes, including section 531.1021 of the Government Code, which provides in relevant part:

(g) All information and materials subpoenaed or compiled by the [the OIG] in connection with an audit or investigation or by the office of the attorney general in connection with a Medicaid fraud investigation are confidential and not subject to disclosure under [the Act], and not subject to disclosure, discovery, subpoena, or other means of legal compulsion for their release to anyone other than the office or the attorney general or their employees or agents involved in the audit or investigation conducted by the office or the attorney general, except that this information may be disclosed to the state auditor’s office, law enforcement agencies, and other entities as permitted by other law.

(h) A person who receives information under Subsection (g) may disclose the information only in accordance with Subsection (g) and in a manner that is consistent with the authorized purpose for which the person first received the information.

Id. § 531.1021(g), (h). You assert the submitted information is confidential under section 531.1021(g). Section 531.1021 is located in subchapter C of chapter 531 of the Government Code, titled “Medicaid and Other Health and Human Services Fraud, Abuse, or Overcharges.” The legislature’s amendment to section 531.1021(g) added express language stating information connected to investigations of Medicaid fraud is confidential. Section 531.102, also found in subchapter C, further specifies the OIG “is responsible for the investigation of fraud and abuse in the provision of health and human services[.]” Id. § 531.102(a). Thus, subchapter C addresses the responsibilities of the OIG in conducting investigations of Medicaid and other health and human services fraud and abuse. Therefore, section 531.1021 applies only to audits and investigations of Medicaid and other health and human services fraud and abuse. The information at issue consists of a document related to an internal personnel investigation into the alleged misconduct of an employee. We find this information is not related to Medicaid or other health and human services fraud, abuse, or overcharges. Therefore, the commission may not withhold any of the information at issue under section 552.101 of the Government Code on that basis. As you raise no other exceptions to disclosure, the submitted information must be released.

You ask this office to issue a previous determination permitting the commission to withhold OIG investigatory records under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 531.1021(g) of the Government Code, without seeking a ruling from this office. See id. § 552.301(a) (allowing governmental body to withhold information subject to previous determination); ORD 673. We decline to issue such a previous determination at this time. Accordingly, this letter ruling is limited to the particular records at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other records or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open/orl_ruling_info.shtml, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act may be directed to the Office of the Attorney General, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

Paige Lay
