Dear Mr. Day:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 493802 (Department ID# 13-0097).

The Royse City Police Department (the "department") received a request for information regarding allegations against a named individual. You claim the submitted information is exempted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code exempts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses section 261.201(a) of the Family Code, which provides:

(a) Except as provided by Section 261.203, the following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under [the Act] and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

(1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and

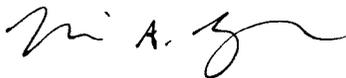

(2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

Fam. Code § 261.201(a). You state, and we agree, the submitted information pertains to an investigation of alleged child abuse under chapter 261 of the Family Code. See id. § 261.001(1)(E) (definition of child abuse includes indecency with a child under Penal Code section 21.11); see also Penal Code § 21.11(a) (defining “child” for purposes of Penal Code section 21.11 as a person under 17 years of age). You state the department has not adopted a rule governing the release of this type of information. Therefore, the submitted information is confidential under section 261.201 of the Family Code and the department must withhold it in its entirety under section 552.101 of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.
