

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

July 30, 2013

Ms. Crystal Koonce
Open Records
Williamson County Sheriff's Office
508 South Rock Street
Georgetown, Texas 78626

OR2013-13126

Dear Ms. Koonce:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 494679.

The Williamson County Sheriff's Office (the "sheriff's office") received a request for information pertaining to the requestor's arrest. You claim the requested information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.108, 552.130, and 552.147 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.<sup>1</sup>

Initially, we note the requestor has excluded Texas driver's license numbers and social security numbers from the scope of his request. Accordingly, this type of information is not responsive to the present request. This ruling does not address the public availability of non-responsive information, and the sheriff's office need not release it in response to this request.<sup>2</sup>

<sup>1</sup>We assume the "representative sample" of information submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent those records contain substantially different types of information than those submitted to this office.

<sup>2</sup>Accordingly, we do not address your argument under section 552.130 of the Government Code for driver's license numbers or your argument under section 552.147 of the Government Code for social security numbers.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision.” Gov’t Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses information other statutes make confidential, such as section 48.101 of the Human Resources Code, which provides in relevant part:

(a) The following information is confidential and not subject to disclosure under [the Act]:

(1) a report of abuse, neglect, or exploitation made under this chapter;

(2) the identity of the person making the report; and

(3) except as provided by this section, all files, reports, records, communications, and working papers used or developed in an investigation made under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

(b) Confidential information may be disclosed only for a purpose consistent with this chapter and as provided by [the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services (“DFPS”)] or investigating state agency rule and applicable federal law.

Hum. Res. Code § 48.101(a)-(b). Section 48.051 of the Human Resources Code provides that “a person having cause to believe that an elderly or disabled person is in the state of abuse, neglect, or exploitation” shall report certain prescribed information to DFPS or another appropriate state agency.<sup>3</sup> See id. § 48.051(a). The only entities authorized to conduct an investigation under chapter 48 of the Human Resources Code are DFPS and certain other state agencies, depending on the circumstances surrounding the incident. See id. §§ 48.151, .152, .252, .301. Thus, reports made by a sheriff’s office generally are not subject to section 48.101. You contend the responsive information is confidential under section 48.101. However, the responsive information consists of a sheriff’s office report regarding an alleged attempted assault against a disabled individual. You provide no arguments explaining how this information was used or developed in any investigation conducted by an entity authorized to conduct an investigation under chapter 48 of the Human Resources Code. Therefore, the responsive information may not be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 48.101 of the Human Resources Code.

Section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure information concerning an investigation that concluded in a result other than conviction or deferred adjudication. Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(2). A governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(2) must demonstrate the requested information relates to a criminal investigation that has concluded in a final result other than a conviction or deferred adjudication. See id. § 552.301(e) (governmental body must provide comments explaining why exceptions raised should apply to information requested). You state the responsive information relates to a concluded case that did not result in a conviction or deferred adjudication. Based on your representation, we conclude section 552.108(a)(2) is applicable to the information at issue.

<sup>3</sup>See Act of June 2, 2003, 78th Leg., R.S., ch. 198, § 1.27, 2003 Tex. Gen. Laws 611, 641 (“A reference in law to the Department of Protective and Regulatory Service means the Department of Family and Protective Services.”).

However, section 552.108 does not except from disclosure basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime. Id. § 552.108(c). Basic information refers to the information held to be public in Houston Chronicle Publ'g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). See Open Records Decision No. 127 at 3-4 (1976) (summarizing types of information considered to be basic information). The sheriff's office must release basic information, even if this information does not literally appear on the front page of an offense or arrest report. Thus, with the exception of basic information, the sheriff's office may withhold the responsive information under section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code.<sup>4</sup>

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
