Re: Request for the police report from a kidnapping incident that occurred a couple weeks ago when a named individual supposedly abducted a woman in her car

Dear Mr. Dodd:

The Office of the Attorney General has received your request for a ruling and assigned your request ID# 507077 (Nichols Jackson client ID# 62429).

After reviewing your arguments and the submitted information, we have determined your request does not present a novel or complex issue. Thus, we are addressing your claims in a memorandum opinion. You claim the submitted information may be withheld from the requestor pursuant to section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. We have considered your arguments and the submitted information and have determined that in accordance with section 552.108(a)(1) you may withhold the submitted information. However, you must release the basic information pursuant to section 552.108(c) of the Government Code. Generally, basic information may not be withheld from public disclosure under section 552.103. Open Records Decision No. 597 (1991).

For more information on the cited exception, please refer to the open government information on our website at <https://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/memorulings.shtml>. You may also contact our Open Government Hotline at 1-877-OPENTEX.
