Dear Ms. Spaulding:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 503456 (EISD Request 3936).

The Eanes Independent School District (the "district"), which you represent, received two requests from the same requestor for attorney fee bills from a specified law firm regarding the requestor.<sup>1</sup> You state you have released some information. You claim portions of the submitted information are excepted from disclosure under section 552.107 of the Government Code and privileged under rule 503 of the Texas Rules of Evidence.<sup>2</sup> We have considered your arguments and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.<sup>3</sup>

Initially, we note the United States Department of Education Family Policy Compliance Office has informed this office the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act ("FERPA"), section 1232g of title 20 of the United States Code, does not permit state and local <sup>1</sup>We note we have combined these requests, which originally were assigned ID numbers 503456 and 504194, under ID number 503456.

<sup>2</sup>Although you raise section 552.022 of the Government Code, this section is not an exception to disclosure. Rather, section 552.022 enumerates categories of information that are not excepted from disclosure unless they are made confidential under the Act or other law. See Gov't Code § 552.022. Additionally, although you raise section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with Texas Rule of Evidence 503, this office has concluded section 552.101 does not encompass discovery privileges. See Open Records Decision Nos. 676 at 1-2 (2002), 575 at 2 (1990).

<sup>3</sup>We assume the "representative sample" of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent that those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

educational authorities to disclose to this office, without parental or an adult student's consent, unredacted, personally identifiable information contained in education records for the purpose of our review in the open records ruling process under the Act.<sup>4</sup> Consequently, state and local educational authorities that receive a request for education records from a member of the public under the Act must not submit education records to this office in unredacted form, that is, in a form in which "personally identifiable information" is disclosed. See 34 C.F.R. § 99.3 (defining "personally identifiable information"). You have submitted redacted education records for our review. Because our office is prohibited from reviewing these education records to determine whether appropriate redactions under FERPA have been made, we will not address the applicability of FERPA to any of the submitted records, except to note the requestor has a right of access under FERPA to his children's education records. See 20 U.S.C. § 1232g(a)(1)(A); 34 C.F.R. § 99.3. Such determinations under FERPA must be made by the educational authority in possession of the education records. The DOE also has informed our office, however, the right of access of a parent under FERPA to information about the parent's child does not prevail over an educational institution's right to assert the attorney-client privilege. Accordingly, we will consider your arguments under section 552.107 and rule 503 for the submitted information.

Next, we note some of the submitted information, which we have marked, was the subject of a previous request for information, in response to which this office issued Open Records Letter No. 2013-15371 (2013). In that ruling, we held the district may withhold the information we marked under rule 503 of the Texas Rules of Evidence and must release the remaining information. As we have no indication the law, facts, or circumstances upon which the prior ruling was based have changed, we conclude the district may continue to rely on Open Records Letter No. 2013-15371 as a previous determination and withhold or release the marked information in accordance with that ruling. See Open Records Decision No. 673 (2001) (so long as law, facts, and circumstances on which prior ruling was based have not changed, first type of previous determination exists where requested information is precisely same information as addressed in prior attorney general ruling, ruling is addressed to same governmental body, and ruling concludes information is or is not excepted from disclosure). However, we will address your arguments for the information not subject to Open Records Letter No. 2013-15371.

Next, we note, and you acknowledge, the remaining information consists of attorney fee bills which are subject to section 552.022(a)(16) of the Government Code. Section 552.022(a)(16) provides for required public disclosure of "information that is in a bill for attorney's fees and that is not privileged under the attorney-client privilege." Gov't Code § 552.022(a)(16). Thus, this information must be released unless it is expressly confidential under the Act or other law. Id. Although the district seeks to withhold portions of the information at issue under section 552.107 of the Government Code, this is a discretionary exception to disclosure and does not make information confidential under the Act. See Open Records Decision Nos. 676 at 6 (section 552.107 is not other law for purposes of section 552.022), 665 at 2 n.5 (2000) (discretionary exceptions generally). Therefore, the district may not withhold the remaining information under section 552.107. However, the Texas Supreme Court has held that the Texas Rules of Evidence are “other law” within the meaning of section 552.022. See In re City of Georgetown, 53 S.W.3d 328, 336 (Tex. 2001). Accordingly, we will address your attorney-client privilege claim under rule 503 of the Texas Rules of Evidence for the remaining information.

Texas Rule of Evidence 503 enacts the attorney-client privilege. Rule 503(b)(1) provides as follows:

A client has a privilege to refuse to disclose and to prevent any other person from disclosing confidential communications made for the purpose of facilitating the rendition of professional legal services to the client:

(A) between the client or a representative of the client and the client’s lawyer or a representative of the lawyer;

(B) between the lawyer and the lawyer’s representative;

(C) by the client or a representative of the client, or the client’s lawyer or a representative of the lawyer, to a lawyer or a representative of a lawyer representing another party in a pending action and concerning a matter of common interest therein;

(D) between representatives of the client or between the client and a representative of the client; or

(E) among lawyers and their representatives representing the same client.

TEX. R. EVID. 503(b)(1). A communication is “confidential” if it is not intended to be disclosed to third persons other than those to whom disclosure is made in furtherance of the rendition of professional legal services to the client or those reasonably necessary for the transmission of the communication. Id. 503(a)(5).

Thus, in order to withhold attorney-client privileged information from disclosure under rule 503, a governmental body must: (1) show the document is a communication transmitted between privileged parties or reveals a confidential communication; (2) identify the parties involved in the communication; and (3) show the communication is confidential by explaining it was not intended to be disclosed to third persons and it was made in furtherance of the rendition of professional legal services to the client. Upon a demonstration of all three factors, the information is privileged and confidential under rule 503, provided the client has not waived the privilege or the document does not fall within the purview of the exceptions to the privilege enumerated in rule 503(d). See Pittsburgh Corning Corp. v. Caldwell, 861 S.W.2d 423, 427 (Tex. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1993, no writ).

You state the information you have marked consists of communications between the district's attorneys and district staff and officials in their capacity as clients. You state the communications were made in order to facilitate the rendition of legal services to the district. You further state the communications at issue were intended to be, and have remained, confidential. Based on these representations and our review, we find the information you have marked within the attorney fee bills constitutes attorney-client communications under rule 503. Accordingly, the district may withhold the information you have marked pursuant to rule 503 of the Texas Rules of Evidence.

In summary, the district may continue to rely on Open Records Letter No. 2013-15371 as a previous determination and withhold or release the marked information in accordance with that ruling. The district may withhold the information you have marked in the remaining information under rule 503 of the Texas Rules of Evidence. The district must release the remaining information.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. Kristi L. Wilkins
