Georgetown, Texas 78626

OR2013-19483

Dear Ms. Koonce:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 505213.

The Williamson County Sheriff's Office (the "sheriff's office") received a request for information pertaining to a specified incident involving a named decedent. You claim some of the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.136 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from public disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses section 6103(a) of title 26 of the United States Code, which renders tax return information confidential. See Attorney General Opinion H-1274 (1978) (tax returns); Open Records Decision No. 600 (1992) (W-4 forms). Section 6103(b) defines the term "return information" as:

a taxpayer's identity, the nature, source, or amount of his income, payments, receipts, deductions, exemptions, credits, assets, liabilities, net worth, tax liability, tax withheld, deficiencies, overassessments, or tax payments . . . or any other data, received by, recorded by, prepared by, furnished to, or collected by the Secretary [of the Treasury] with respect to a return or with respect to the determination of the existence, or possible existence, of liability . . . for any tax, penalty, interest, fine, forfeiture, or other imposition, or offense[.]

26 U.S.C. § 6103(b)(2)(A). Federal courts have construed the term “return information” expansively to include any information gathered by the Internal Revenue Service regarding a taxpayer’s liability under title 26 of the United States Code. See Chamberlain v. Kurtz, 589 F.2d 827, 840-41 (5th Cir. 1979); Mallas v. Kolak, 721 F. Supp. 748, 754 (M.D.N.C. 1989), aff’d in part, 993 F.2d 1111 (4th Cir. 1993). Consequently, the sheriff’s office must withhold the W-2 form you have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 6103(a) of title 26 of the United States Code.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses the Medical Practice Act (“MPA”), subtitle B of title 3 of the Occupations Code. See Occ. Code §§ 151.001-168.202. Section 159.002 of the MPA provides in pertinent part:

(a) A communication between a physician and a patient, relative to or in connection with any professional services as a physician to the patient, is confidential and privileged and may not be disclosed except as provided by this chapter.

(b) A record of the identity, diagnosis, evaluation, or treatment of a patient by a physician that is created or maintained by a physician is confidential and privileged and may not be disclosed except as provided by this chapter.

(c) A person who receives information from a confidential communication or record as described by this chapter, other than a person listed in Section 159.004 who is acting on the patient’s behalf, may not disclose the information except to the extent that disclosure is consistent with the authorized purposes for which the information was first obtained.

Id. § 159.002(a)-(c). This office has concluded the protection afforded by section 159.002 extends only to records created by either a physician or someone under the supervision of a physician. See Open Records Decision Nos. 487 (1987), 370 (1983), 343 (1982). Section 159.001 of the MPA defines “patient” as a person who consults with or is seen by a physician to receive medical care. See id. § 159.001(3). Under this definition, a deceased person cannot be a patient under section 159.002 of the MPA. See Open Records Decision Nos. 487 (1987), 370 (1983), 343 (1982). Thus, the MPA is applicable only to records related to a person who was alive at the time of diagnosis, evaluation, or treatment to which the records pertain. A portion of the submitted information reflects it was completed by a jail medical officer under the supervision of the jail physician. Upon review, we find this information, which we have marked, consists of records of the identity, diagnosis, evaluation, or treatment of a patient by a physician that were created by a physician or someone under the supervision of a physician. Accordingly, the sheriff’s office must withhold the information we have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with the MPA.¹

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses section 411.083 of the Government Code which pertains to criminal history record information (“CHRI”). CHRI generated by the National Crime Information Center (“NCIC”) or by the Texas Crime Information Center is confidential under federal and state law. CHRI means “information collected about a person by a criminal justice agency that consists of identifiable descriptions and notations of arrests, detentions, indictments, informations, and other formal criminal charges and their dispositions.” Id. § 411.082(2). Title 28, part 20 of the Code of Federal Regulations governs the release of CHRI obtained from the NCIC network or other states. See 28 C.F.R. § 20.21. The federal regulations allow each state to follow its individual law with respect to CHRI it generates. Open Records Decision No. 565 at 7 (1990); see generally Gov’t Code ch. 411 subch. F. Section 411.083 of the Government Code deems confidential CHRI the Texas Department of Public Safety (“DPS”) maintains, except DPS may disseminate this information as provided in chapter 411, subchapter F of the Government Code. See Gov’t Code § 411.083. Sections 411.083(b)(1) and 411.089(a) authorize a criminal justice agency to obtain CHRI; however, a criminal justice agency may not release CHRI except to another criminal justice agency for a criminal justice purpose. Id. § 411.089(b)(1). Thus, any CHRI obtained from DPS or any other criminal justice agency must be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with Government Code chapter 411, subchapter F. Upon review, we find the information the sheriff’s office has marked constitutes CHRI for purposes of chapter 411. Therefore, the sheriff’s office must withhold the information you have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 411.083 of the Government Code.²

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses section 181.006 of the Health and Safety Code. Section 181.006 states that:

For a covered entity that is a governmental unit, an individual’s protected health information:

- (1) includes any information that reflects that an individual received health care from the covered entity; and
- (2) is not public information and is not subject to disclosure under [the Act].

¹As our ruling is dispositive, we need not address your remaining argument against disclosure of this information.

²As our ruling is dispositive, we need not address your remaining argument against disclosure of this information.

Health & Safety Code § 181.006. Section 181.001(b)(2) defines “[c]overed entity,” in part, as “any person who:

(A) for commercial, financial, or professional gain, monetary fees, or dues, or on a cooperative, nonprofit, or pro bono basis, engages, in whole or in part, and with real or constructive knowledge, in the practice of assembling, collecting, analyzing, using, evaluating, storing, or transmitting protected health information. The term includes a business associate, health care payer, governmental unit, information or computer management entity, school, health researcher, health care facility, clinic, health care provider, or person who maintains an Internet site[.]

Id. § 181.001(b)(2)(A). You do not inform us the sheriff’s office is a covered entity for purposes of section 181.006 of the Health and Safety Code. Thus, we find you have failed to demonstrate that any of the remaining information is subject to section 181.006 of the Health and Safety Code. Accordingly, none of the remaining information may be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code on that basis.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses chapter 560 of the Government Code, which provides that a governmental body may not release biometric identifier information except in certain limited circumstances. See Gov’t Code §§ 560.001 (defining “biometric identifier” to include fingerprints and records of hand geometry), .002 (prescribing manner in which biometric identifiers must be maintained and circumstances in which they can be released), .003 (providing that biometric identifiers in possession of governmental body are exempt from disclosure under the Act). We note laws making this type of information confidential are intended to protect an individual’s privacy. See id. § 560.003. Because the right of privacy is purely personal and lapses at death, the fingerprints of a deceased individual may not be withheld on the basis of sections 560.001, 560.002, and 560.003. See Moore v. Charles B. Pierce Film Enters., Inc., 589 S.W.2d 489 (Tex. Civ. App.—Texarkana 1979, writ ref’d n.r.e.) (right of privacy is purely personal and lapses upon death); see also Justice v. Belo Broadcasting Corp., 472 F. Supp. 145, 146-67 (N.D. Tex. 1979); Attorney General Opinions JM-229 (1984); H-917 (1976); Open Records Decision No. 272 at 1 (1981) (privacy rights lapse upon death). The fingerprints you have marked belong to a deceased individual. Therefore, the sheriff’s office may not withhold the fingerprints under section 552.101 in conjunction with section 560.003 of the Government Code.

Section 552.136(b) of the Government Code states “[n]otwithstanding any other provision of [the Act], a credit card, debit card, charge card, or access device number that is collected, assembled, or maintained by or for a governmental body is confidential.” Gov’t Code § 552.136(b). We note the purposes of section 552.136 is to protect the privacy interests of individuals. As noted above, because the right of privacy lapses at death, information that pertains solely to deceased individuals may not be withheld under section 552.136. See Moore, 589 S.W.2d at 491; see also Attorney General Opinions JM-229, H-917; ORD 272 at 1. We note you have marked debit and credit card numbers which belong to the deceased individual. To the extent the information you have marked pertains to an account in which a living individual has an interest, the sheriff's office must withhold it under section 552.136 of the Government Code.³ However, if the information you have marked pertains solely to the deceased individual, the sheriff's office may not withhold it under section 552.136 of the Government Code.

In summary, the sheriff's office must withhold the W-2 form you have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 6103(a) of title 26 of the United States Code. The sheriff's office must withhold the information we have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with the MPA. The sheriff's office must withhold the CHRI you have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 411.083 of the Government Code. To the extent the information you have marked pertains to an account in which a living individual has an interest, the sheriff's office must withhold it under section 552.136 of the Government Code. The sheriff's office must release the remaining information.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
