Ms. June B. Harden

OR2013-21253

Dear Ms. Harden:

This office received a citizen's request for a ruling to determine if certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. The request for a ruling was assigned ID# 508066.

The Office of the Attorney General (the "OAG") received a request for offense report number 08-00056. The OAG released some of the information responsive to the request. However, as permitted by section 552.130(c) of the Government Code, the OAG redacted driver's license information it determined to be subject to section 552.130(a)(1) of the Government Code without requesting a decision from this office. Gov't Code § 552.130(c) (governmental body authorized to redact, without necessity of requesting decision from this office, information described in subsection 552.130(a)(1)). Pursuant to section 552.130(d), the requestor has asked this office to review the redacted information and render a decision as to whether this information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.130. Id. § 552.130(d) (requestor may appeal governmental body's decision to withhold information under section 552.130(c) to attorney general).

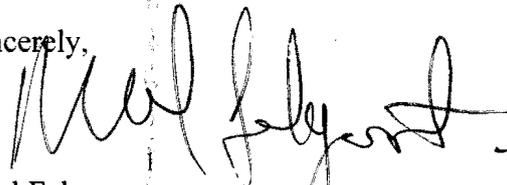

We note the redacted information was the subject of a request for the same information from this same requestor, in response to which this office issued Open Records Letter No. 2013-09716 (2013). In that ruling, we determined the OAG must withhold certain driver's license information under section 552.130(a)(1) of the Government Code. We find there has been no change in the law, facts, or circumstances upon which that ruling was based. Accordingly, the OAG must continue to rely on Open Records Letter No. 2013-09716 and withhold the information at issue in accordance with that ruling. See Open Records Decision No. 673 (2001) (so long as law, facts, and circumstances on which prior ruling was based have not changed, first type of previous determination exists where requested information is precisely same information as was addressed in prior attorney general ruling, ruling is addressed to same governmental body, and ruling concludes information is or is not excepted from disclosure).

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open/orl\_ruling\_info.shtml, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act may be directed to the Office of the Attorney General, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

Neal Falgoust
Assistant Attorney General
Open Records Division
