

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

January 15, 2014

Mr. Robert Henneke
Kerr County Attorney's Office
700 Main Street, Suite BA-103
Kerrville, Texas 78028

OR2014-00942

Dear Mr. Henneke:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 511297.

The Kerr County Clerk's Office (the "county clerk's office") received a request for "a bulk data CASE INDEX historical file." You claim the requested information is not subject to the Act. In the alternative, you claim the requested information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered your arguments and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.¹

You contend the requested information constitutes judicial records not subject to the Act. The Act generally requires the public disclosure of information maintained by a "governmental body." See Gov't Code § 552.002(a)(1). While the Act's definition of a "governmental body" is broad, it specifically excludes the judiciary. See id. § 552.003(1)(B). Information "collected, assembled, or maintained by or for the judiciary" is not subject to the Act but instead is "governed by rules adopted by the Supreme Court of Texas or by other applicable laws and rules." Id. § 552.0035(a); cf. Open Records Decision No. 131 (1976) (applying statutory predecessor to judiciary exclusion under Gov't Code § 552.003(1)(B) prior to enactment of Gov't Code § 552.0035). In determining whether a governmental entity falls within the judiciary exception of the Act, this office looks to whether ¹We assume the "representative sample" of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

governmental entity maintains the relevant records as an agent of the judiciary in regard to judicial, as opposed to administrative functions. See Open Records Decision No. 646 at 2-3 (1996) (citing Benavides v. Lee, 665 S.W.2d 151 (Tex. App.—San Antonio 1983, no writ)). Upon review, we find the requested information is maintained by the county clerk as an agent of the judiciary. As such, this information is not subject to release under the Act, and the county clerk's office need not release this information in response to the request.² As we are able to make this determination, we need not address your remaining argument against disclosure.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open/orl_ruling_info.shtml, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act may be directed to the Office of the Attorney General, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

David L. Wheelus
Assistant Attorney General
