Dear Ms. Camp-Lee:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 512754.

The Round Rock Police Department (the "department"), which you represent, received a request for information pertaining to a specified incident. You claim some of the requested information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 of the Government Code encompasses section 411.192 of the Government Code, which governs the release of all information maintained by the Department of Public Safety concerning the licensure of individuals to carry a concealed handgun, and provides as follows:

- (a) The [Department of Public Safety] shall disclose to a criminal justice agency information contained in its files and records regarding whether a named individual or any individual named in a specified list is licensed under this subchapter. Information on an individual subject to disclosure under this section includes the individual's name, date of birth, gender, race, zip code, telephone number, e-mail address, and Internet website address. Except as otherwise provided by this section and by Section 411.193, all other records maintained under this subchapter are confidential and are not subject to mandatory disclosure under the open records law, Chapter 552.

(b) An applicant or license holder may be furnished a copy of disclosable records regarding the applicant or license holder on request and the payment of a reasonable fee.

Id. § 411.192(a), (b). The information you have marked pertains to concealed handgun license information that appears to have been received from the Department of Public Safety. In this instance, the requestor is neither a criminal justice agency nor the license holder whose information is at issue. We note section 411.193 is not applicable. Id. § 411.193 (making a statistical report including the number of licenses issued, denied, revoked, or suspended by the department during the preceding month available to the public). Therefore, the department must withhold the concealed handgun license information you have marked under section 552.101 in conjunction with section 411.192 of the Government Code. The department must release the remaining information.¹

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
