Richardson, Texas 75081

OR2014-01175

Dear Ms. Lindsay:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 511402 (Town PIR No. 716-13).

The Town of Flower Mound (the "town"), which you represent, received a request for all information and personal data of the requestor that was acquired by the town during the pre-employment process. The town released some information to the requestor, but claims the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (the "FCRA"), 15 U.S.C. § 1681 et seq. Section 1681b of the FCRA permits a consumer reporting agency to furnish a consumer report to a person the consumer reporting agency has reason to believe intends to use the information for employment purposes. See id. § 1681b(a)(3)(B); see also id. § 1681a(b), (d) (defining "person" and "consumer report"). A criminal history report compiled by a private consumer reporting agency is a "consumer report" under the FCRA. See id. § 1681a(d) (defining "consumer report"); see also www.ftc.gov/bcp/online/pubs/buspubs/credempl.shtm (discussing Federal Trade Commission position that "consumer report" includes criminal histories). Section 1681b further provides "[a] person shall not use or obtain a consumer report for any purpose unless . . . the consumer report is obtained for a purpose for which the consumer report is authorized to be furnished under this section; and . . . the purpose is certified in accordance with section 1681e of this title by a prospective user of the report through a general or specific certification.” Id. § 1681b(f). Section 1681e provides for the maintenance of procedures by consumer reporting agencies under which prospective users of consumer reports must identify themselves, certify the purposes for which they seek information, and certify that the information will be used for no other purpose. See id. § 1681e(a); see also Open Records Decision No. 373 at 2 (1983) (stating that federal law strictly limits distribution of consumer credit reports by credit reporting agencies). You state the submitted information consists of a consumer report furnished to the town by a consumer agency for purposes of section 1681b of the FCRA. We note the FCRA does not permit the disclosure of information in a consumer report for the purpose of responding to a request for information under the Act. Therefore, the town must withhold the submitted information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with the FCRA. As our ruling is dispositive, we need not address your remaining argument against disclosure of the submitted information.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
