

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

March 20, 2014

Mr. John K. McKinney, Jr.
Assistant County Attorney
Montgomery County
501 North Thompson, Suite 102
Conroe, Texas 77301

OR2014-04744

Dear Mr. McKinney:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 519352 (ORR# 2014-0437).

The Montgomery County Sheriff's Office (the "sheriff's office") received a request for information pertaining to specified incidents. You claim the requested information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code.<sup>1</sup> We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime [if] release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime." Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body claiming section 552.108 must reasonably explain how and why the release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). We note that the submitted information includes citations. Because copies of the citations have been provided to the individuals who were cited, we find that release of the citations will not interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(1). Therefore, the sheriff's office may not withhold the citations under section 552.108(a)(1). You state the remaining information relates to pending criminal prosecutions. Based on this representation, we conclude that the release of this information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ'g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). Thus, section 552.108(a)(1) is generally applicable to the remaining information.

However, section 552.108 does not except from disclosure basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime. Gov't Code § 552.108(c). Basic information refers to the information held to be public in Houston Chronicle. See Houston Chronicle, 531 S.W.2d at 186-88. The sheriff's office must release basic information, even if the information does not literally appear on the front page of an offense or arrest report. See Open Records Decision No. 127 at 3-4 (1976) (summarizing types of information deemed public by Houston Chronicle). Thus, with the exception of the citations and basic information, the sheriff's office may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.

We note that the citations contain information subject to section 552.130 of the Government Code.<sup>2</sup> Section 552.130 excepts from disclosure information relating to a motor vehicle operator's or driver's license or permit issued by an agency of this state or another state or country. Gov't Code § 552.130(a)(1). We note section 552.130 protects personal privacy. Thus, the requestor has a special right of access to his own driver's license information. See id. § 552.023(a) (person or a person's authorized representative has special right of access, beyond the right of general public, to information held by a governmental body that relates to person and is protected from public disclosure by laws intended to protect person's privacy interests); Open Records Decision No. 481 at 4 (1987) (privacy theories not implicated when individual requests information concerning himself). Accordingly, the sheriff's office may not withhold the requestor's own driver's license information from him under section 552.130. The sheriff's office, however, must withhold the information we have marked in one of the citations, which pertains to an individual other than the requestor, under section 552.130.<sup>3</sup>

<sup>2</sup>The Office of the Attorney General will raise a mandatory exception on behalf of a governmental body, but ordinarily will not raise other exceptions. See Open Records Decision Nos. 481 (1987), 480 (1987), 470 (1987).

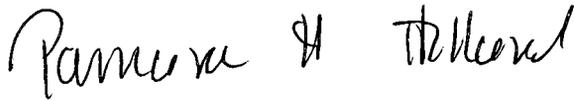

<sup>3</sup>We note section 552.130(c) of the Government Code allows a governmental body to redact the information described in subsection 552.130(a) without the necessity of seeking a decision from the attorney general. See Gov't Code § 552.130(c). If a governmental body redacts such information, it must notify the requestor in accordance with section 552.130(e). See id. § 552.130(d), (e)

In summary, with the exception of the citations and basic information, the sheriff's office may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. In releasing the citations, the sheriff's office must withhold the information we have marked, which pertains to an individual other than the requestor, under section 552.130 of the Government Code.
