Dear Ms. Rawls:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 521993.

The City of Beaumont (the "city") received a request for (1) information pertaining to special prosecutors involved in an investigation of the requestor; (2) information pertaining to the investigation; (3) financial information pertaining to payments made to special prosecutors in relation to the investigation; (4) correspondence to or from the Jefferson County Sheriff's Department (the "sheriff's department") pertaining to a specified incident involving the requestor; (5) information pertaining to the sheriff's department's involvement in guarding the homes of two specified individuals; and (6) communications pertaining to the requestor between or among specified individuals and entities over a specified period of time. You state the city is releasing some information to the requestor. You claim the remaining requested information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.108, and 552.130 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses section 261.201 of the Family Code, which provides, in part, the following:

(a) [T]he following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under [the Act], and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

- (1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and
- (2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

Fam. Code § 261.201(a). Upon review, we find a portion of the submitted information, which we have marked, relates to an investigation of alleged or suspected child abuse or neglect conducted by the Jefferson County Criminal District Attorney's Office. See id. § 261.001 (defining "abuse" and "neglect" for purposes of chapter 261 of the Family Code); see also id. § 101.003(a) (defining "child" for purposes of chapter 261). Accordingly, we find this information is subject to section 261.201 of the Family Code. Therefore, the city must withhold the information we have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201 of the Family Code.<sup>1</sup>

Section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]" Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(1) must reasonably explain how and why release of the information at issue would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You state some of the submitted information relates to a pending criminal investigation and prosecution. You state the Beaumont Police Department objects to the release of this information because its release would interfere with the pending investigation and prosecution. Based on these representations, we conclude section 552.108(a)(1) is applicable in this instance. See Houston Chronicle Publ'g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (delineating law enforcement interests present in active cases), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). Therefore, the city may withhold the information at issue, which we have marked, pursuant to section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.

Section 552.130 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure information relating to a motor vehicle operator's license, driver's license, motor vehicle title or registration issued by an agency of this state or another state or country. Gov't Code § 552.130(a)(1)-(2). Upon review, we find the information you have marked consists of motor vehicle record information. Accordingly, the city must withhold the marked motor vehicle record information marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code.

In summary, the city must withhold the information we have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201 of the Family Code and the marked motor vehicle record information under section 552.130 of the Government Code. The city may withhold the information we have marked under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. The city must release the remaining information.<sup>2</sup>
