

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

May 28, 2014

Ms. Ellen H. Spalding
Counsel for the Klein Independent School District
Rogers, Morris & Grover, L.L.P.
5718 Westheimer Road, Suite 1200
Houston, Texas 77057

OR2014-09143

Dear Ms. Spalding:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 523942.

The Klein Independent School District (the "district"), which you represent, received a request for the personnel files of three named teachers. You inform us you have released some information to the requestor. You state the district has redacted student-identifying information pursuant to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act ("FERPA"), section 1232g of title 20 of the United States Code.<sup>1</sup> We understand you have also redacted personal e-mail addresses subject to section 552.137 of the Government Code in accordance with Open Records Decision No. 684 (2009).<sup>2</sup> You claim the submitted information is

<sup>1</sup>The United States Department of Education Family Policy Compliance Office (the "DOE") has informed this office that FERPA does not permit state and local educational authorities to disclose to this office, without parental consent, unredacted, personally identifiable information contained in education records for the purpose of our review in the open records ruling process under the Act. The DOE has determined that FERPA determinations must be made by the educational authority in possession of the education records. We have posted a copy of the letter from the DOE to this office on the Attorney General's website: <http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/20060725usdoe.pdf>.

<sup>2</sup>Open Records Decision No. 684 is a previous determination to all governmental bodies authorizing them to withhold certain categories of information, including an e-mail address of a member of the public, under section 552.137 of the Government Code, without the necessity of requesting an attorney general opinion.

excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.102 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.<sup>3</sup>

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision.” Gov’t Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 of the Government Code encompasses section 21.048 of the Education Code, which addresses teacher certification examinations. Section 21.048(c-1) provides the following:

(c-1) The results of an examination administered under this section are confidential and are not subject to disclosure under Chapter 552, Government Code, unless:

(1) the disclosure is regarding notification to a parent of the assignment of an uncertified teacher to a classroom as required by Section 21.057; or

(2) the educator has failed the examination more than five times.

Educ. Code § 21.048(c-1). Upon review, we find the information we have marked reflects the results of examinations administered under section 21.048 of the Education Code. You state subsections 21.048(c-1)(1) and (2) are not applicable in this instance. Accordingly, the district must withhold the information we have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 21.048(c-1) of the Education Code. However, we find none of the remaining information consists of the results of examinations administered under section 21.048 of the Education Code. Accordingly, none of the remaining information may be withheld under section 552.101 on that basis.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses section 21.355 of the Education Code, which provides that “[a] document evaluating the performance of a teacher or administrator is confidential.” Id. § 21.355(a). This office has interpreted section 21.355 to apply to any document that evaluates, as that term is commonly understood, the performance of a teacher or an administrator. See Open Records Decision No. 643 (1996). Additionally, a court has concluded that a written reprimand constitutes an evaluation for purposes of section 21.355, as it “reflects the principal’s judgment regarding [a teacher’s] actions, gives corrective direction, and provides for further review.” North East Indep. Sch. Dist. v. Abbott, 212 S.W.3d 364 (Tex. App.—Austin 2006, no pet.). In Open Records Decision No.

<sup>3</sup>We assume the “representative sample” of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

643, we concluded that a “teacher” for purposes of section 21.355 means a person who (1) is required to and does in fact hold a certificate or permit required under chapter 21 of the Education Code and (2) is teaching at the time of his or her evaluation. See ORD 643.

You assert some of the information at issue consists of written evaluations and reprimands that are confidential under section 21.355. You inform us the teachers at issue held the appropriate certifications at the time of the evaluations. Based on your representations and our review, we agree that some of the documents, which we have marked, constitute evaluations as contemplated by section 21.355. Accordingly, the district must withhold the documents we have marked under section 552.101 in conjunction with section 21.355 of the Education Code. However, you have not demonstrated that any of the remaining information at issue evaluates the performance of a teacher for purposes of section 21.355; thus, none of the remaining information at issue may be withheld on that basis under section 552.101.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses the doctrine of common-law privacy, which protects information that is (1) highly intimate or embarrassing, the publication of which would be highly objectionable to a reasonable person, and (2) not of legitimate concern to the public. Indus. Found. v. Tex. Indus. Accident Bd., 540 S.W.2d 668, 685 (Tex. 1976). To demonstrate the applicability of common-law privacy, both prongs of this test must be satisfied. Id. at 681-82. Types of information considered intimate and embarrassing by the Texas Supreme Court are delineated in Industrial Foundation. Id. at 683. This office has found a compilation of an individual’s criminal history is highly embarrassing information, the publication of which would be highly objectionable to a reasonable person. Cf. U.S. Dep’t of Justice v. Reporters Comm. for Freedom of the Press, 489 U.S. 749, 764 (1989) (when considering prong regarding individual’s privacy interest, court recognized distinction between public records found in courthouse files and local police stations and compiled summary of information and noted that individual has significant privacy interest in compilation of one’s criminal history). Furthermore, we find a compilation of a private citizen’s criminal history is generally not of legitimate concern to the public. Upon review, we find the information we have marked satisfies the standard articulated by the Texas Supreme Court in Industrial Foundation. Accordingly, the district must withhold the information we have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy.

Section 552.102(a) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “information in a personnel file, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.” Gov’t Code § 552.102(a). The Texas Supreme Court has held section 552.102(a) excepts from disclosure the dates of birth of state employees in the payroll database of the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts. Tex. Comptroller of Pub. Accounts v. Attorney Gen. of Tex., 354 S.W.3d 336 (Tex. 2010). Upon review of the information at issue, we find the district must withhold the dates of birth we have marked under section 552.102(a) of the Government Code. However, we find none of the remaining information consists of dates of birth subject to section 552.102(a) of the Government Code; accordingly, none of the remaining information may be withheld on that basis.

Section 552.102(b) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “a transcript from an institution of higher education maintained in the personnel file of a professional public school employee[.]” Gov’t Code § 552.102(b). This exception further provides, however, “the degree obtained or the curriculum on a transcript in the personnel file of the employee” are not excepted from disclosure. Id. Upon review, we find the district must withhold the educational transcripts we have marked under section 552.102(b) of the Government Code, except for the information that reveals the employee’s name, the degree obtained, and the courses taken. See Open Records Decision No. 526 (1989) (addressing statutory predecessor). However, we find none of the remaining information consists of educational transcripts subject to section 552.102(b) of the Government Code; accordingly, none of the remaining information may be withheld on that basis.

We understand you have redacted some of the remaining information subject to sections 552.117(a)(1) and 552.130 of the Government Code.<sup>4</sup> You also inform us you have redacted social security numbers in accordance with section 552.147(b) of the Government Code.<sup>5</sup> We have marked additional information subject to these sections.<sup>6</sup> Section 552.117(a)(1) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure the home addresses and telephone numbers, emergency contact information, social security numbers, and family member information of current or former officials or employees of a governmental body who request this information be kept confidential under section 552.024 of the Government Code, except as provided by section 552.024(a-1). See Gov’t Code §§ 552.117(a)(1), .024. Section 552.024(a-1) of the Government Code provides, “A school district may not require an employee or former employee of the district to choose whether to allow public access to the employee’s or former employee’s social security number.” Id. § 552.024(a-1). Thus, the district may only withhold under section 552.117 the home address and telephone number,

<sup>4</sup>Section 552.024(c)(2) of the Government Code authorizes a governmental body to redact information protected by section 552.117(a)(1) of the Government Code without the necessity of requesting a decision under the Act if the current or former employee or official to whom the information pertains timely chooses not to allow public access to the information. See Gov’t Code § 552.024(c)(2). Section 552.130(c) of the Government Code allows a governmental body to redact the information described in subsection 552.130(a) without the necessity of seeking a decision from the attorney general. See id. § 552.130(c). If a governmental body redacts such information, it must notify the requestor in accordance with section 552.130(e). See id. § 552.130(d), (e).

<sup>5</sup>Section 552.147(b) of the Government Code authorizes a governmental body to redact a living person’s social security number from public release without the necessity of requesting a decision from this office under the Act. Gov’t Code § 552.147(b).

<sup>6</sup>The Office of the Attorney General will raise mandatory exceptions on behalf of a governmental body, but ordinarily will not raise other exceptions. See Open Records Decision Nos. 481 (1987), 480 (1987), 470 (1987).

emergency contact information, and family member information of a current or former employee or official of the district who requests this information be kept confidential under section 552.024. Whether a particular piece of information is protected by section 552.117(a)(1) must be determined at the time the request for it is made. See Open Records Decision No. 530 at 5 (1989). Therefore, a governmental body must withhold information under section 552.117(a)(1) on behalf of a current or former employee only if the individual made a request for confidentiality under section 552.024 prior to the date on which the request for the information was made. Accordingly, to the extent the employees whose information is at issue timely elected to keep their information confidential pursuant to section 552.024, the district must withhold the information we have marked under section 552.117(a)(1). The district may not withhold this information under section 552.117 to the extent the employees did not timely elect to keep their information confidential.

Section 552.130 of the Government Code provides information relating to a motor vehicle operator's license, driver's license, motor vehicle title or registration, or a personal identification document issued by an agency of this state or another state or country is excepted from public release. Gov't Code § 552.130(a). Upon review, we find the district must withhold the motor vehicle record information we have marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code.

Section 552.147(a-1) of the Government Code provides, "The social security number of an employee of a school district in the custody of the district is confidential." Id. § 552.147(a-1). The Eighty-third Texas Legislature amended section 552.147 to make the social security numbers of school district employees confidential, without such employees being required to first make a confidentiality election under section 552.024 of the Government Code. See id. § 552.024(a-1) (a school district may not require an employee or former employee of the district to choose whether to allow public access to the employee's or former employee's social security number). The legislative history of sections 552.024(a-1) and 552.147(a-1) reflects that the protection afforded by section 552.147(a-1) was intended to extend to both current and former school district employees. See House Comm. on Gov't Efficiency and Reform, Bill Analysis, Tex. H.B. 2961, 83rd Leg., R.S. (2013) ("H.B. 2961 seeks to protect the social security number of a school district employee or former employee from public disclosure."). Thus, when reading sections 552.024(a-1) and 552.147(a-1) together, and upon review of the legislative history of these two amendments, we conclude section 552.147(a-1) makes confidential the social security numbers of both current and former school district employees. Accordingly, the district must withhold the social security numbers of district employees we have marked under section 552.147(a-1) of the Government Code.

We note some of the information at issue may be protected by copyright. A custodian of public records must comply with the copyright law and is not required to furnish copies of records that are copyrighted. Open Records Decision No. 180 at 3 (1977). A governmental body must allow inspection of copyrighted materials unless an exception applies to the information. Id.; see Open Records Decision No. 109 (1975). If a member of the public wishes to make copies of copyrighted materials, the person must do so unassisted by the governmental body. In making copies, the member of the public assumes the duty of compliance with the copyright law and the risk of a copyright infringement suit.

In summary, the district must withhold (1) the information we have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 21.048(c-1) of the Education Code; (2) the information we have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 21.355 of the Education Code; (3) the information we have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy; (4) the dates of birth we have marked under section 552.102(a) of the Government Code; (5) the educational transcripts we have marked under section 552.102(b) of the Government Code, except for the information that reveals the employee's name, the degree obtained, and the courses taken; (6) the information we have marked under section 552.117(a)(1) of the Government Code, to the extent the employees at issue timely elected to keep such information confidential under section 552.024 of the Government Code; (7) the motor vehicle record information we have marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code; and (8) the social security numbers of district employees we have marked under section 552.147(a-1) of the Government Code. The remaining information must be released; however, any information subject to copyright may be released only in accordance with copyright law.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.
