

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

June 10, 2014

Mr. Jesse M. Blakley
Assistant District Attorney
County of Brazoria
111 East Locust, Suite 408A
Angleton, Texas 77515

OR2014-09910

Dear Mr. Blakley:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 525423.

The Brazoria County Sheriff's Office (the "sheriff's office") received a request for call sheets, transcripts, and audio recordings pertaining to specified calls. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses section 261.201 of the Family Code, which provides, in relevant part:

(a) [T]he following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under [the Act], and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

(1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under [chapter 261 of the Family Code] and the identity of the person making the report; and

(2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under [chapter 261 of the Family Code] or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

Fam. Code § 261.201(a). Although you claim the information at issue is confidential under section 261.201, we note the information at issue relates to a child custody investigation. Upon review, we find you have failed to demonstrate that the information at issue was used or developed in an investigation under chapter 261 of the Family Code. See id. §§ 261.001(1), (4) (defining “abuse” and “neglect” for purposes of chapter 261 of the Family Code), 101.003(a) (defining “child” for purposes of section 261.201 as person under 18 years of age who is not and has not been married or who has not had the disabilities of minority removed for general purposes). Accordingly, the submitted information may not be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code on that basis.

Section 552.108(a)(2) excepts from disclosure “[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . it is information that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime only in relation to an investigation that did not result in conviction or deferred adjudication[.]” Gov’t Code § 552.108(a)(2). A governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(2) must demonstrate the requested information relates to a criminal investigation that concluded in a final result other than conviction or deferred adjudication. See id. § 552.301(e)(1)(A) (providing that a governmental body must provide written comments explaining why exceptions raised should apply to information requested). You state “[t]here has been no resulting conviction or deferred adjudication” relating to the incident at issue (emphasis added). We note, however, section 552.108(a)(2) is applicable only if the information at issue is related to a concluded criminal case that “did not result in conviction or deferred adjudication” (emphasis added). See id. § 552.108(a)(2). Thus, we find you have failed to demonstrate the applicability of section 552.108(a)(2) to the submitted information. Accordingly, the sheriff’s office may not withhold any of the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code. As no other exceptions to disclosure have been raised, the sheriff’s office must release the submitted information.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
