Dear Mr. McCracken:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 528323 (PIR No. 14-154).

The Watauga Police Department (the "department"), which you represent, received a request for a specified incident report. Although the department takes no position as to the disclosure of the submitted information, you state that release of this information may implicate the privacy interests of an individual.
