The City of Dallas (the "city") received a request for information pertaining to a specified address during a specified time period, including information regarding a specific incident involving a named individual. You state the city does not have some of the requested information.<sup>1</sup> You also state the city will release portions of the requested information to the requestor with redactions in accordance with Open Records Letter No. 2011-18466 (2011).<sup>2</sup> You claim portions of the submitted information are excepted from disclosure under

<sup>1</sup>The Act does not require a governmental body to release information that did not exist when a request for information was received or to prepare new information in response to a request. See Econ. Opportunities Dev. Corp. v. Bustamante, 562 S.W.2d 266, 267-68 (Tex. Civ. App.—San Antonio 1978, writ dismissed); Open Records Decision Nos. 605 at 2 (1992), 452 at 3 (1986), 362 at 2 (1983).

<sup>2</sup>Open Records Letter No. 2011-18466 is a previous determination issued to the city's police department (the "department") authorizing it to withhold the originating address of a 9-1-1 caller furnished to the department by a service supplier established in accordance with chapter 772 of the Health and Safety Code under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 772.318 of the Health and Safety Code without requesting a decision from this office. See Gov't Code § 552.301(a); Open Records Decision No. 673 (2001) (listing elements of second type of previous determination under section 552.301(a) of the Government Code).

section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.<sup>3</sup>

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses the doctrine of common-law privacy, which protects information that is (1) highly intimate or embarrassing, the publication of which would be highly objectionable to a reasonable person, and (2) not of legitimate concern to the public. Indus. Found. v. Tex. Indus. Accident Bd., 540 S.W.2d 668, 685 (Tex. 1976). To demonstrate the applicability of common-law privacy, both prongs of this test must be satisfied. Id. at 681-82. The types of information considered intimate and embarrassing by the Texas Supreme Court are delineated in Industrial Foundation. Id. at 683. Upon review, we find no portion of the submitted information is highly intimate or embarrassing and of no legitimate public interest. Accordingly, the city may not withhold any of the submitted information under section 552.101 of the Government Code on the basis of common-law privacy. As you raise no other exceptions to disclosure, the city must release the submitted information.
