

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

August 18, 2014

Ms. Catelyn H. Kostbar
Harris County Appraisal District
P.O. Box 920975
Houston, Texas 77292-0975

OR2014-14437

Dear Ms. Kostbar:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 533056 (HCAD Request Reference No. 14-2642).

The Harris County Appraisal District (the "district") received a request for the copy of a specified personal property rendition. You state you will release some information. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.<sup>1</sup>

Initially, you acknowledge the district failed to meet the ten-business-day and fifteen-business-day deadlines prescribed by section 552.301(b) and section 552.301(e) of the Government Code in requesting an open records decision from this office. See Gov't Code § 552.301(b), (e). A governmental body's failure to comply with the procedural requirements of section 552.301 results in the legal presumption the requested information is public and must be released unless the governmental body demonstrates a compelling reason to withhold the information from disclosure. See id. § 552.302; Simmons v. Kuzmich, 166 S.W.3d 342, 350 (Tex. App.—Fort Worth 2005, no pet.); Hancock v. State Bd.

<sup>1</sup>We assume the "representative sample" of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

of Ins., 797 S.W.2d 379, 381 (Tex. App.—Austin 1990, no writ); see also Open Records Decision No. 630 (1994). The presumption that information is public under section 552.302 can generally be overcome by demonstrating the information is confidential by law or third-party interests are at stake. See Open Records Decision Nos. 630 at 3, 325 at 2 (1982). Section 552.101 can provide a compelling reason to overcome this presumption. Therefore, we will address your argument under this exception.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision.” Gov’t Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information protected by other statutes, such as section 22.27 of the Tax Code, which provides in pertinent part:

(a) Rendition statements, real and personal property reports, attachments to those statements and reports, and other information the owner of property provides to the appraisal office in connection with the appraisal of the property, including income and expense information related to a property filed with an appraisal office and information voluntarily disclosed to an appraisal office or the comptroller about real or personal property sales prices after a promise it will be held confidential, are confidential and not open to public inspection. The statements and reports and the information they contain about specific real or personal property or a specific real or personal property owner and information voluntarily disclosed to an appraisal office about real or personal property sales prices after a promise it will be held confidential may not be disclosed to anyone other than an employee of the appraisal office who appraises property except as authorized by Subsection (b) of this section.

(b) Information made confidential by this section may be disclosed:

(2) to the person who filed the statement or report or the owner of property subject to the statement, report, or information or to a representative of either authorized in writing to receive the information[.]

Tax Code § 22.27(a), (b)(2). You indicate the district is an “appraisal office” for purposes of section 22.27(a) and you state the submitted information consists of confidential information provided to the district by a property owner pursuant to section 22.27(a) of the Tax Code. We note the requestor may be the authorized agent of the owner of the property at issue and, therefore, may have a right of access to the requested information that would otherwise be confidential under section 22.27. See id. § 22.27(b)(2); see also id. § 1.111 (governing property owner’s authority to designate agent to act on owner’s behalf in property tax matters). Thus, we must rule conditionally. If the requestor provides the requisite written authorization pursuant to section 22.27(b)(2) of the Tax Code, the district must release the requested information to this requestor. If the requestor does not provide the requisite written authorization under section 22.27(b)(2), the district must withhold the information at issue under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 22.27(a) of the Tax Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
