August 28, 2014

Mr. James M. Whitton
Brackett & Ellis, P.C.

OR2014-15231

Dear Mr. Whitton:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 537207.

The Crowley Independent School District (the "district"), which you represent, received a request for the district's safety plan for a shooter on campus or bodily harm. You state the district has released some of the requested information. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information protected by other statutes. As part of the Texas Homeland Security Act (the "HSA"), sections 418.176 through 418.182 were added to chapter 418 of the Government Code. These provisions make certain information related to terrorism confidential. Section 418.176 of the Government Code provides, in relevant part:

(a) Information is confidential if the information is collected, assembled, or maintained by or for a governmental entity for the purpose of preventing, detecting, responding to, or investigating an act of terrorism or related criminal activity and:

(1) relates to staffing requirements of an emergency response provider, including a law enforcement agency, a fire-fighting agency, or an emergency services agency; [or]

(2) relates to a tactical plan of the provider; or

(3) consists of a list or compilation of pager or telephone numbers, including mobile and cellular telephone numbers, of the provider.

Id. § 418.176(a)(1)-(3). The fact that information may generally be related to emergency preparedness does not make the information per se confidential under the provisions of the HSA. See Open Records Decision No. 649 at 3 (1996) (language of confidentiality provisions controls scope of its protection). As with any confidentiality statute, a governmental body asserting this section must adequately explain how the responsive information falls within the scope of the provision. See Gov't Code § 552.301(e)(1)(A) (governmental body must explain how claimed exception to disclosure applies).

You contend the submitted information is a confidential tactical plan maintained by the district in order to respond to acts of terrorism or criminal activity. You inform us the submitted information consists of the “[d]istrict’s tactical plan to respond to an active shooter on school property and outlines the procedure that administrators, staff, and auxiliary personnel are to follow in order to protect the lives of students and [d]istrict personnel.” You assert release of the submitted information would compromise student and district personnel safety and reveal any advantages and potential vulnerabilities in the district’s plan. Upon review, we conclude the submitted information relates to staffing requirements and tactical plans of emergency response providers maintained by the district for the purpose of preventing, detecting, responding to, or investigating an act of terrorism or related criminal activity. Accordingly, the district must withhold the submitted information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 418.176 of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
