

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

September 23, 2014

Ms. Elizabeth Hanshaw Winn
Assistant County Attorney
Travis County
P.O. Box 1748

OR2014-16834

Dear Ms. Winn:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 541640.

The Travis County District Attorney's Office (the "district attorney's office") received a request for information pertaining to a specified investigation. The district attorney's office states it does not have some of the requested information.¹ The district attorney's office also states it has released some of the requested information, but asserts the information it submitted to this office is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the claimed exception and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.² We have also considered comments submitted by the requestor. See Gov't Code § 552.304 (interested party may submit comments stating why information should or should not be released).

¹The Act does not require a governmental body to disclose information that did not exist when the request for information was received. Econ. Opportunities Dev. Corp. v. Bustamante, 562 S.W.2d 266 (Tex. App.—San Antonio 1978, writ dismissed); Open Records Decision No. 452 at 3 (1986).

²We assume the "representative sample" of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

Initially, we note the submitted information contains a custodial death report. Article 49.18(b) of the Code of Criminal Procedure provides the Office of the Attorney General shall make the custodial death report available to any interested person, with the exception of any portion of the report that the attorney general determines is privileged. See Crim. Proc. Code art. 49.18(b). The format of a custodial death report was revised in May 2006 and now consists of four pages and an attached summary of how the death occurred. The Office of the Attorney General has determined the four-page report and summary must be released to the public, but any other documents submitted with the revised report are confidential under article 49.18(b). Although you seek to withhold the custodial death report under section 552.108 of the Government Code, the exceptions to disclosure found in the Act generally do not apply to information other statutes make public. See Open Records Decision Nos. 623 at 3 (1994), 525 at 3 (1989). Accordingly, the district attorney's office must release the submitted custodial death report pursuant to article 49.18(b) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

You assert the remaining information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code, which excepts from disclosure information concerning an investigation that concluded in a result other than conviction or deferred adjudication. Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(2). A governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(2) must demonstrate the information at issue relates to a criminal investigation that has concluded in a final result other than conviction or deferred adjudication. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(2), .301(e)(1)(A). The district attorney's office states the remaining information pertains to a case that concluded in a result other than conviction or deferred adjudication. However, the requestor asserts some of the requested information does not relate to a criminal investigation. Whether the remaining information relates to a criminal investigation is a question of fact. Open Records Decision Nos. 592 at 2 (1991), 552 at 4 (1990), 435 at 4 (1986). This office is unable to resolve disputes of fact in the open records ruling process. Accordingly, we must rely upon the facts alleged to us by the governmental body requesting our opinion, or upon those facts that are discernable from the documents submitted for our inspection. See ORD 522 at 4. Accordingly, based on the representations of the district attorney's office, we conclude section 552.108(a)(2) is applicable to the remaining information.³

However, section 552.108 does not except from disclosure basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime. Gov't Code § 552.108(c). Basic information refers to the information held to be public in Houston Chronicle Publishing Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). See Open Records Decision No. 127 at 3-4 (1976) (summarizing types of information deemed public by Houston Chronicle). Thus, with the exception of basic information, the district attorney's office may withhold the remaining information under section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code.

To conclude, the district attorney's office must release the submitted custodial death report pursuant to article 49.18(b) of the Code of Criminal Procedure. With the exception of basic information, the district attorney's office may withhold the remaining information under section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
