Dear Ms. Tynan:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 538303 (OGC No. 157133).

The University of Texas at San Antonio (the "university") received a request for a specified police report. You state you will release some information. You claim portions of the submitted information are excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]" Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body claiming section 552.108 must reasonably explain how and why the release of the information at issue would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You state the submitted information relates to a pending criminal investigation by the university's police department (the "department") and prosecution in the Bexar County Courts at Law. You inform us, and provide documentation demonstrating, the department objects to the release of this information because its release would interfere with the pending investigation and prosecution. Based on these representations and our review, we find section 552.108(a)(1) is applicable in this instance. See Houston Chronicle Publ'g Co. v.

City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). Accordingly, the university may withhold the information you marked under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.<sup>1</sup>

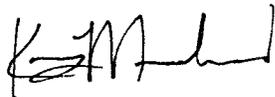

Section 552.130 of the Government Code provides information relating to a motor vehicle operator's license, driver's license, motor vehicle title or registration, or personal identification document issued by an agency of this state or another state or country is excepted from public release.<sup>2</sup> See Gov't Code § 552.130(a)(2). Accordingly, the university must withhold the motor vehicle record information we have marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code.

In summary, the university may withhold the information you marked under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. The university must withhold the motor vehicle record information we have marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code. The university must release the remaining information.
