

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS
GREG ABBOTT

October 28, 2014

Mr. W. Montgomery Meitler
Senior Counsel
Texas Education Agency
1701 North Congress Avenue
Austin, Texas 78701-1494

OR2014-19413

Dear Mr. Meitler:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 540941 (TEA PIR# 22668).

The Texas Education Agency (the "agency") received a request for all documents and reports pertaining to a named individual. You state the agency will release some of the requested information. You state the agency will redact some information pursuant to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act ("FERPA"), section 1232g of title 20 of the United States Code.¹ You also state you will redact a driver's license number pursuant to section 552.130(c) of the Government Code, a personal email address under section 552.137 of the Government Code pursuant to Open Records Decision No. 684 (2009), and social security ¹The United States Department of Education Family Policy Compliance Office (the "DOE") has informed this office that FERPA does not permit state and local educational authorities to disclose to this office, without parental consent, unredacted, personally identifiable information contained in education records for the purpose of our review in the open records ruling process under the Act. The DOE has determined that FERPA determinations must be made by the educational authority in possession of the education records. We have posted a copy of the letter from the DOE to this office on the Attorney General's website: <http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/20060725usdoe.pdf>.

numbers pursuant to section 552.147(b) of the Government Code.² You claim portions of the submitted information are excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.102, and 552.103 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.³

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision.” Gov’t Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses chapter 411 of the Government Code which pertains to criminal history record information (“CHRI”). Chapter 411 of the Government Code authorizes the Texas Department of Public Safety (the “DPS”) to compile and maintain CHRI from law enforcement agencies throughout the state and to provide access to authorized persons to federal criminal history records. See id. §§ 411.042, .087.

In 2007, the Legislature enacted section 411.0845 of the Government Code, which provides in relevant part:

(a) The [DPS] shall establish an electronic clearinghouse and subscription service to provide [CHRI] to a particular person entitled to receive [CHRI] and updates to a particular record to which the person has subscribed under this subchapter.

(b) On receiving a request for [CHRI] from a person entitled to such information under this subchapter, the [DPS] shall provide through the electronic clearinghouse:

(1) the [CHRI] reported to the [DPS] or the Federal Bureau of Investigation relating to the individual who is the subject of the request; or ²Section 552.130(c) of the Government Code permits a governmental body to redact certain motor vehicle record information without seeking a ruling from this office. See Gov’t Code § 552.130(c); see also id. § 552.130(d)-(e) (requestor may appeal governmental body’s decision to withhold information under section 552.130(c) to attorney general and governmental body withholding information pursuant to section 552.130(c) must provide certain notice to requestor). Section 552.147(b) of the Government Code permits a governmental body to redact a living person’s social security number from public release without the necessity of requesting a decision from this office. See id. § 552.147(b). Open Records Decision No. 684 serves as a previous determination to all governmental bodies authorizing them to withhold certain categories of information, including an e-mail address of a member of the public under section 552.137 of the Government Code, without the necessity of requesting an attorney general decision. ORD 684.

³We assume the “representative sample” of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

(2) a statement that the individual who is the subject of the request does not have any [CHRI] reported to the [DPS] or the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

(d) The [DPS] shall ensure that the information described by Subsection (b) is provided only to a person otherwise entitled to obtain [CHRI] under this subchapter. Information collected under this section is confidential and is not subject to disclosure under [the Act].

Id. § 411.0845(a)-(b), (d). Pursuant to section 411.0901 of the Government Code, the agency is authorized to obtain this CHRI from DPS. See id. § 411.0901; see also Educ. Code § 22.0831 (agency shall review CHRI of certified educators). You state the information you have marked consists of CHRI that was obtained through the DPS criminal history clearinghouse pursuant to section 411.0901. You also state the circumstances under which the release of this information is permitted under section 411.0901(b)(2) do not exist in this instance. See Gov't Code § 411.0901(b)(2). Based on your representations and our review, we agree the information you have marked is confidential under section 411.0845 of the Government Code and the agency must withhold it under section 552.101 of the Government Code.

Section 552.101 also encompasses section 21.048 of the Education Code, which addresses teacher certification examinations. Section 21.048(c-1) provides the following:

(c-1) The results of an examination administered under this section are confidential and are not subject to disclosure under Chapter 552, Government Code, unless:

(1) the disclosure is regarding notification to a parent of the assignment of an uncertified teacher to a classroom as required by Section 21.057; or

(2) the educator has failed the examination more than five times.

Educ. Code § 21.048(c-1). Upon review, we find the information you have marked reflects the results of examinations administered under section 21.048 of the Education Code. You state subsections 21.048(c-1)(1) and (2) are not applicable in this instance. Accordingly, the agency must withhold the information you have marked under section 552.101 in conjunction with section 21.048(c-1).

Section 552.102(b) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “a transcript from an institution of higher education maintained in the personnel file of a professional public school employee[.]” Gov’t Code § 552.102(b). However, this section further provides that “the degree obtained or the curriculum on a transcript in the personnel file of the employee” is not excepted from disclosure. Id. You state the submitted transcripts are maintained in the educator’s personnel file at Spring Independent School District (the “district”), and the agency has possession of these transcripts via a special right of access in chapter 249 of title 19 of the Texas Administrative Code. See 19 T.A.C. § 249.14 (agency may obtain and investigate information concerning alleged improper conduct by an educator). In Texas Education Agency v. Abbott, the district court held that transcripts obtained by the agency from a school district during its investigation of an educator are considered to be maintained in the personnel files of employees of the district and are thus subject to section 552.102(b). Tex. Educ. Agency v. Abbott, No. 07-002656 (250th Dist. Ct., Travis County, Tex., Sept. 2, 2008). Thus, with the exception of the employee’s name, courses taken, and degree obtained, the agency must withhold the transcripts you have marked under section 552.102(b) of the Government Code.

Section 552.103 of the Government Code provides, in part, the following:

(a) Information is excepted from [required public disclosure] if it is information relating to litigation of a civil or criminal nature to which the state or a political subdivision is or may be a party or to which an officer or employee of the state or a political subdivision, as a consequence of the person’s office or employment, is or may be a party.

(c) Information relating to litigation involving a governmental body or an officer or employee of a governmental body is excepted from disclosure under Subsection (a) only if the litigation is pending or reasonably anticipated on the date that the requestor applies to the officer for public information for access to or duplication of the information.

Gov’t Code § 552.103(a), (c). The agency has the burden of providing relevant facts and documents to show the section 552.103(a) exception is applicable in a particular situation. The test for meeting this burden is a showing that (1) litigation was pending or reasonably anticipated on the date of the receipt of the request for information and (2) the information at issue is related to the pending or anticipated litigation. See Univ. of Tex. Law Sch. v. Tex. Legal Found., 958 S.W.2d 479, 481 (Tex. App.—Austin 1997, orig. proceeding); Heard v. Houston Post Co., 684 S.W.2d 210, 212 (Tex. App.—Houston [1st Dist.] 1984, writ ref’d n.r.e.); Open Records Decision No. 551 at 4 (1990). The agency must meet both prongs of this test for information to be excepted under section 552.103(a).

To establish litigation is reasonably anticipated, a governmental body must provide this office "concrete evidence showing that the claim that litigation may ensue is more than mere conjecture." Open Records Decision No. 452 at 4 (1986). In the context of anticipated litigation in which the governmental body is the prospective plaintiff, the concrete evidence must at least reflect that litigation is "realistically contemplated." See Open Records Decision No. 518 at 5 (1989); see also Attorney General Opinion MW-575 (1982) (finding that investigatory file may be withheld from disclosure if governmental body attorney determines that it should be withheld pursuant to section 552.103 and that litigation is "reasonably likely to result"). Whether litigation is reasonably anticipated must be determined on a case-by-case basis. See ORD 452 at 4.

You state the remaining information is related to an open investigation of allegations that a named educator engaged in inappropriate conduct. You also state the alleged misconduct may require the agency to file a petition for sanctions against the educator pursuant to provisions of the Education Code and title 19 of the Texas Administrative Code. See Educ. Code §§ 21.031(a) (agency shall regulate and oversee standards of conduct of public school educators), .041(b) (agency shall propose rules providing for disciplinary proceedings); 19 T.A.C. §§ 247.2, 249.15(c). You explain that if the educator files an answer to the petition, the matter will be referred to the State Office of Administrative Hearings for a contested case proceeding. See 19 T.A.C. § 249.18. You state such proceedings are governed by the Administrative Procedure Act (the "APA"), chapter 2001 of the Government Code. See Educ. Code § 21.041(b)(7); 19 T.A.C. § 249.4(a)(1); Open Records Decision No. 588 (1991) (contested case under APA constitutes litigation for purposes of statutory predecessor to section 552.103). Based on your representations and our review, we determine the agency reasonably anticipated litigation when it received the request for information. Furthermore, you explain the information at issue was compiled for the purpose of investigating the alleged educator misconduct. Upon review, we agree the information at issue relates to the anticipated litigation. Therefore, we conclude the agency may withhold the remaining information you have marked under section 552.103 of the Government Code.

We note, however, the purpose of section 552.103 is to enable a governmental body to protect its position in litigation by forcing parties seeking information relating to that litigation to obtain it through discovery procedures. See ORD 551 at 4-5. Thus, if the opposing party has seen or had access to information relating to the litigation through discovery or otherwise, there is no interest in withholding such information from public disclosure under section 552.103. See Open Records Decision Nos. 349 (1982), 320 (1982). We also note the applicability of section 552.103 ends once the related litigation concludes. See Attorney General Opinion MW-575 (1982); Open Records Decision No. 350 (1982).

In summary, the agency must withhold the information you have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 411.0845 of the Government Code. The agency must also withhold the information you have marked under section 21.048 of the Education Code in conjunction with section 552.101 of the Government Code. The agency must withhold the transcripts you have marked under section 552.102(b) of the Government Code, with the exception of the employee's name, courses taken, and degree obtained. Finally, the agency may withhold the information you have marked under section 552.103 of the Government Code. The remaining information must be released.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
