Dear Ms. Whitney:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 543925.

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice (the "department") received a request for interview documentation forms related to a specified job posting. You state the department has released some information to the requestor. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.122 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.122 of the Government Code excepts from public disclosure "[a] test item developed by a . . . governmental body[.]" Gov't Code § 552.122(b). In Open Records Decision No. 626 (1994), this office determined the term "test item" in section 552.122 includes "any standard means by which an individual's or group's knowledge or ability in a particular area is evaluated," but does not encompass evaluations of an employee's overall job performance or suitability. ORD 626 at 6. The question of whether specific information falls within the scope of section 552.122(b) must be determined on a case-by-case basis. Id. Traditionally, this office has applied section 552.122 where release of "test items" might compromise the effectiveness of future examinations. Id. at 4-5; see also Open Records Decision No. 118 (1976).

You state the submitted questions and answers "are intended to display the technical expertise of the applicant." You contend release of the information at issue would “compromise the effectiveness of future examinations” because the department reuses similar interview questions. Upon review, we conclude the interview question we have marked qualifies as a test item under section 552.122(b). We also find release of the applicants’ responses to this question would tend to reveal the question. Therefore, the department may withhold the interview question and the corresponding applicants’ responses we have marked under section 552.122(b) of the Government Code. We find, however, the remaining information only evaluates an applicant’s individual abilities, personal opinions, and subjective ability to respond to particular situations, and does not test any specific knowledge of an applicant. Accordingly, we determine the remaining information does not consist of test items under section 552.122(b) of the Government Code and may not be withheld on that basis. As you raise no further exceptions to disclosure, the department must release the remaining information.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open/orl_ruling_info.shtml, or call the Office of the Attorney General’s Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839.
