OR2014-22169

Dear Mr. Smeltzer:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 545965.

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice (the "department") received a request for information pertaining to a grievance filed by a named inmate and a related complaint filed by the requestor, to include the grievance forms, a related medical report, witness statements pertaining to the grievance and complaint, and all evidence used to investigate the complaint. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.134 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information. We have also received and considered comments from the requestor. See Gov't Code § 552.304 (interested party may submit comments stating why information should or should not be released).

Section 552.134 of the Government Code relates to inmates of the department and provides in pertinent part:

(a) Except as provided by Subsection (b) or by Section 552.029 [of the Government Code], information obtained or maintained by the [department] is excepted from [required public disclosure] if it is information about an inmate who is confined in a facility operated by or under a contract with the department.

Id. § 552.134(a). You state the submitted information constitutes information about an inmate confined in a facility operated by the department. You state section 552.029 of the Government Code does not apply to the submitted information. Upon review, we find the submitted information is subject to section 552.134 of the Government Code. We note the requestor provided a release signed by the named inmate. Although section 552.023 of the Government Code gives a person or the person's authorized representative a "special right of access, beyond the right of the general public, to information held by a governmental body that relates to the person and that is protected from public disclosure by laws intended to protect that person's privacy interests," we note section 552.134 does not protect only the inmate's privacy interest. See id. § 552.023. Therefore, section 552.023 does not provide the requestor a special right of access to the submitted information in this instance. Accordingly, the department must withhold the submitted information under section 552.134 of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open/orl_ruling_info.shtml, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act may be directed to the Office of the Attorney General, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

Alley Latham
Assistant Attorney General
