Ms. Robin Whitney

Office of the General Counsel
Texas Department of Criminal Justice
P.O. Box 4004

Dear Ms. Whitney:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 546716.

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice (the "department") received a request for information pertaining to the requestor and a named applicant for a specified position, specifically the summary of experience, certification of compliance, and the entire interview documentation form, including questions and answers.¹ You state you will release some information to the requestor. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.122 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.122 of the Government Code excepts from public disclosure "[a] test item developed by a . . . governmental body[.]" Gov't Code § 552.122(b). In Open Records Decision No. 626 (1994), this office determined the term "test item" in section 552.122 includes "any standard means by which an individual's or group's knowledge or ability in ¹We note the department sought and received clarification of the information requested. See Gov't Code § 552.222 (providing if request for information is unclear, governmental body may ask requestor to clarify request); see also City of Dallas v. Abbott, 304 S.W.3d 380, 387 (Tex. 2010) (holding when governmental entity, acting in good faith, requests clarification of unclear or overbroad request for public information, ten-business-day period to request attorney general opinion is measured from date request is clarified or narrowed).

a particular area is evaluated,” but does not encompass evaluations of an employee’s overall job performance or suitability. ORD 626 at 6. The question of whether specific information falls within the scope of section 552.122(b) must be determined on a case-by-case basis. Id. Traditionally, this office has applied section 552.122 where release of “test items” might compromise the effectiveness of future examinations. Id. at 4-5; see also Open Records Decision No. 118 (1976).

You state the submitted questions and answers “are intended to display the technical expertise of the applicant.” You contend release of the information at issue would “compromise the effectiveness of future examinations” because the department reuses similar interview questions. Having considered your arguments and reviewed the submitted information, we find the questions we have marked qualify as test items under section 552.122(b) of the Government Code. We also find release of the model answers and the applicants’ responses to these questions would tend to reveal the questions themselves. Therefore, the department may withhold questions we have marked and the corresponding model answers and applicants’ responses under section 552.122(b) of the Government Code. We find, however, the remaining information does not test any specific knowledge of an applicant. Accordingly, we determine the remaining information does not consist of test items under section 552.122(b) of the Government Code and may not be withheld on that basis. As you raise no further exceptions for this information, the remaining information must be released.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open/orl_ruling_info.shtml, or call the Office of the Attorney General’s Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Sincerely,

Kenny Moreland
