Re: Request for any and all police records, except for traffic violations, pertaining to a named individual

Dear Mr. Kopp:

The Office of the Attorney General has received your request for a ruling and assigned your request ID# 603233 (COSA File No.: W107878).

After reviewing your arguments and the submitted information, we have determined your request does not present a novel or complex issue. Thus, we are addressing your claims in a memorandum opinion. You claim the requested information must be withheld from the requestor. First, we note the report we have marked is not responsive to the request because it does not involve the named individual. This decision does not address the non-responsive report. A request to compile an individual's criminal history implicates this person's privacy. We have concluded such a compilation is highly embarrassing information and is generally not of legitimate concern to the public. Therefore, to the extent you maintain law enforcement records depicting the named individual as a suspect, arrestee, or criminal defendant, you must withhold the requested information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy.

For more information on the cited exception, please refer to the open government information on our website at <https://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/memorulings.shtml>. You may also contact our Open Government Hotline at 1-877-OPENTEX.
