ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

January 27, 2016

Ms. Jordan Hale
Public Information Coordinator
Assistant General Counsel
Office of the Governor
P.O. Box 12428
Austin, Texas 78711

OR2016-02025

Dear Ms. Hale:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 595594 (OOG ID# 15-455).

The Office of the Governor (the "governor's office") received a request for (1) information received from named individuals and any other individuals regarding an interest or desire to be appointed as Education Commissioner; and (2) all letters of recommendation from third parties regarding an appointment of a new Education Commissioner. You state you are releasing some information. You claim portions of the submitted information are excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.¹

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses section 437.232 of the Government Code, which provides as follows:

(a) In this section, "military personnel information" means a service member's name, home address, rank, official title, pay rate or grade, state

¹We assume the "representative sample" of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

active duty orders, deployment locations, military duty addresses, awards and decorations, length of military service, and medical records.

(b) A service member's military personnel information is confidential and not subject to disclosure under Chapter 552.

Gov't Code § 437.232. Section 437.232 is contained in subchapter E of chapter 437 of the Government Code. Chapter 437 is titled "Texas Military" and subchapter E is titled "Texas Military Forces." Upon review, we find section 437.232 only applies to military personnel records maintained by the Texas Military Forces. See id. § 437.001(14) (providing that "Texas military forces" for purposes of chapter 437 mean the Texas National Guard, the Texas State Guard, and any other military forces under state law). The submitted information you seek to withhold is found in a resume maintained by the governor's office. Thus, section 437.232 is not applicable to the information at issue, and the governor's office may not withhold the information you marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 437.232 of the Government Code.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses the doctrine of common-law privacy. Indus. Found. v. Tex. Indus. Accident Bd., 540 S.W.2d 668, 685 (Tex. 1976). Under the common-law right of privacy, an individual has a right to be free from the publicizing of private affairs in which the public has no legitimate concern. Id. at 682. In considering whether a public citizen's date of birth is private, the Third Court of Appeals looked to the supreme court's rationale in Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts v. Attorney General of Texas, 354 S.W.3d 336 (Tex. 2010). Paxton v. City of Dallas, No. 03-13-00546-CV, 2015 WL 3394061, at *3 (Tex. App.—Austin May 22, 2015, pet. denied) (mem. op.). The supreme court concluded public employees' dates of birth are private under section 552.102 of the Government Code because the employees' privacy interest substantially outweighed the negligible public interest in disclosure.² Tex. Comptroller, 354 S.W.3d at 347-48. Based on Texas Comptroller, the court of appeals concluded the privacy rights of public employees apply equally to public citizens, and thus, public citizens' dates of birth are also protected by common-law privacy pursuant to section 552.101. City of Dallas, 2015 WL 3394061, at *3. Thus, the governor's office must withhold all public citizens' dates of birth under section 552.101 of the Government Code.

Section 552.130 of the Government Code provides information relating to a motor vehicle operator's license, driver's license, motor vehicle title or registration, or personal identification document issued by an agency of this state or another state or country is excepted from public release. See Gov't Code § 552.130. We understand the governor's office will withhold the motor vehicle record information you marked pursuant to section 552.130(c) of the Government Code.³ Upon review, we find additional portions of the remaining information, which we have marked, consist of motor vehicle record information. Accordingly, the governor's office must withhold the motor vehicle record information you marked, and the additional motor vehicle record information we have marked, under section 552.130 of the Government Code.

²Section 552.102(a) excepts from disclosure "information in a personnel file, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy." Gov't Code § 552.102(a).

You state you will redact the e-mail addresses you marked under section 552.137 of the Government Code pursuant to Open Records Decision No. 684 (2009).⁴ Section 552.137 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "an e-mail address of a member of the public that is provided for the purpose of communicating electronically with a governmental body" unless the member of the public consents to its release or the e-mail address is of a type specifically excluded by subsection (c). See Gov't Code § 552.137(a)-(c). Section 552.137 does not apply to an institutional e-mail address, the general e-mail address of a business, an e-mail address of a person who has a contractual relationship with a governmental body, an e-mail address of a vendor who seeks to contract with a governmental body, an e-mail address maintained by a governmental entity for one of its officials or employees, or an e-mail address provided to a governmental body on a letterhead. See id. § 552.137(c). We note the remaining information contains additional e-mail addresses, which we have marked, subject to section 552.137. Accordingly, we find the governor's office must withhold the personal e-mail addresses you marked, and the additional e-mail addresses we have marked, under section 552.137 of the Government Code, unless the owners affirmatively consent to their public disclosure.

In summary, the governor's office must withhold all public citizens' dates of birth under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy. The governor's office must withhold the motor vehicle record information you marked, and the additional motor vehicle record information we have marked, under section 552.130 of the Government Code. The governor's office must withhold the personal e-mail addresses you marked, and the additional e-mail addresses we have marked, under section 552.137 of the Government Code, unless the owners affirmatively consent to their public disclosure. The governor's office must release the remaining information.

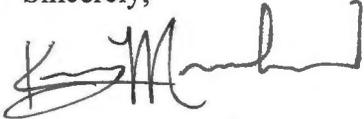

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

³Section 552.130(c) of the Government Code allows a governmental body to redact the information described in subsection 552.130(a) without the necessity of seeking a decision from the attorney general. See Gov't Code § 552.130(c). If a governmental body redacts such information, it must notify the requestor in accordance with section 552.130(e). See id. § 552.130(d), (e).

⁴Open Records Decision No. 684 serves as a previous determination to all governmental bodies authorizing them to withhold certain categories of information, including personal e-mail addresses under section 552.137 of the Government Code, without the necessity of requesting an attorney general decision. See ORD 684.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
