

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

February 10, 2016

Mr. Abelino "Abel" Reyna
Criminal District Attorney
County of McLennan
219 North 6th Street, Suite 200
Waco, Texas 76701

OR2016-03283

Dear Mr. Harmon:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 597946.

The McLennan County District Attorney's Office (the "district attorney's office") received a request for information pertaining to a specified grand jury room. You state you are providing some information to the requestor. You claim portions of the submitted information are excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.152 of the Government Code.<sup>1</sup> We have also received and considered comments from the requestor. See Gov't Code § 552.304 (permitting interested third party to submit to attorney general reasons why requested information should or should not be released). We have considered the submitted arguments and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Id.

<sup>1</sup>We note we asked the district attorney's office to provide additional information pursuant to section 552.303 of the Government Code. See Gov't Code § 552.303(c)-(d) (if attorney general determines that information in addition to that required by section 552.301 is necessary to render decision, written notice of that fact shall be given to governmental body and requestor, and governmental body shall submit necessary additional information to attorney general not later than seventh calendar day after date of receipt of notice). We have received and considered the information submitted by the district attorney's office pursuant to that request.

§ 552.101. This section encompasses the Texas Homeland Security Act (the “HSA”). As part of the HSA, sections 418.176 through 418.182 were added to chapter 418 of the Government Code. These provisions make certain information related to terrorism confidential. Section 418.181 provides “[t]hose documents or portions of documents in the possession of a governmental entity are confidential if they identify the technical details of particular vulnerabilities of critical infrastructure to an act of terrorism.” Id. § 418.181. The fact information may generally be related to a governmental body’s security concerns or to a security system does not make the information per se confidential under the HSA. See Open Records Decision No. 649 at 3 (1996) (language of confidentiality provision controls scope of its protection). Furthermore, the mere recitation by a governmental body of a statute’s key terms is not sufficient to demonstrate the applicability of a claimed provision. As with any confidentiality provision, a governmental body asserting one of the confidentiality provisions of the HSA must adequately explain how the responsive information falls within the scope of the claimed provision. See Gov’t Code § 552.301(e)(1)(A) (governmental body must explain how claimed exception to disclosure applies).

You assert the floor plans and architectural drawings of the McLennan County grand jury chambers and portions of the office premises of the district attorney’s office, which you indicated, identify key details and reveal the layout of critical infrastructure. You assert the information at issue “reveal[s] technical details of particular vulnerabilities in the critical infrastructure[.]” You argue release of the information at issue “would subject grand jurors and employees and officers of the [district attorney’s office] to a substantial threat of physical harm.” We agree the information at issue pertains to critical infrastructure. See generally id. § 421.001 (defining “critical infrastructure” to include “all public or private assets, systems, and functions vital to the security, governance, public health and safety, economy, or morale of the state or the nation”). Based on your representations and our review, we find the district attorney’s office has demonstrated that release of the information at issue would identify the technical details of particular vulnerabilities of critical infrastructure to an act of terrorism. Thus, the district attorney’s office must withhold the information you indicated under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 418.181 of the Government Code.<sup>2</sup>

Section 552.136 of the Government Code provides, “[n]otwithstanding any other provision of [the Act], a credit card, debit card, charge card, or access device number that is collected, assembled, or maintained by or for a governmental body is confidential.”<sup>3</sup> Id. § 552.136(b); see id. § 552.136(a) (defining “access device”). Upon review, the district attorney’s office must withhold the account number we have marked under section 552.136 of the Government Code.

<sup>2</sup>As our ruling is dispositive, we need not address your remaining argument against disclosure of this information.

<sup>3</sup>The Office of the Attorney General will raise mandatory exceptions on behalf of a governmental body, but ordinarily will not raise other exceptions. See Open Records Decision Nos. 481 (1987), 480 (1987), 470 (1987).

Section 552.137 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "an e-mail address of a member of the public that is provided for the purpose of communicating electronically with a governmental body" unless the member of the public consents to its release or the e-mail address is of a type specifically excluded by subsection (c). See id. § 552.137(a)-(c). Section 552.137 does not apply to an institutional e-mail address, the general e-mail address of a business, an e-mail address of a person who has a contractual relationship with a governmental body, an e-mail address of a vendor who seeks to contract with a governmental body, an e-mail address maintained by a governmental entity for one of its officials or employees, or an e-mail address provided to a governmental body on a letterhead. See id. § 552.137(c). Upon review, we find the district attorney's office must withhold the personal e-mail address we have marked under section 552.137 of the Government Code, unless the owner affirmatively consents to its public disclosure.

In summary, the district attorney's office must withhold the information you indicated under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 418.181 of the Government Code. The district attorney's office must withhold the account number we have marked under section 552.136 of the Government Code. The district attorney's office must withhold the personal e-mail address we have marked under section 552.137 of the Government Code, unless the owner affirmatively consents to its public disclosure. The district attorney's office must release the remaining information.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
