ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

February 11, 2016

Mr. John C. West
Office of the Inspector General
Texas Department of Criminal Justice
416 West Howard Lane, Suite 250
Austin, Texas 78728

OR2016-03388

Dear Mr. West:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 599035 (ORR# 2015-00251).

The Office of the Inspector General of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice (the "department") received a request for a specified investigation and a video recording of the requestor. The department claims the requested information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.102, 552.108, 552.117, 552.1175, 552.134, and 552.147 of the Government Code. We have considered the claimed exceptions and reviewed the submitted information.

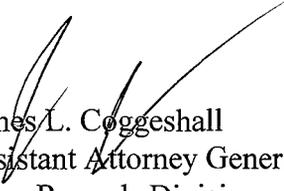

Section 552.108(a) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if: (1) release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]" Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body claiming section 552.108 must reasonably explain how and why release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), (b)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). The department states the submitted information relates to a pending criminal investigation by the department investigator. Based on this representation, we conclude the release of the submitted information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ'g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976).

However, section 552.108 does not except from disclosure basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime. Gov't Code § 552.108(c). Basic information refers to the information held to be public in Houston Chronicle. See Houston Chronicle, 531 S.W.2d at 186-88; Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976) (summarizing types of information deemed public by Houston Chronicle). Thus, with the exception of basic information, the department may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.¹

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. ¹As our ruling is dispositive, we do not address the other arguments of the department to withhold this information, except to note the basic information at issue is not excepted from disclosure under section 552.134 of the Government Code. See Gov't Code § 552.029(8) (basic information regarding an incident involving use of force or an alleged crime involving an inmate is not excepted under section 552.134).
