Dear Ms. Fleming:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 597948.

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice (the "department") received a request for parole reviews of a named inmate. You state the department has released some information. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses section 508.313 of the Government Code, which provides, in part:

(a) All information obtained and maintained [by the department], including a victim protest letter or other correspondence, a victim impact statement, a list of inmates eligible for release on parole, and an arrest record of an inmate, is confidential and privileged if the information relates to:

- (1) an inmate of the institutional division [of the department] subject to release on parole, release to mandatory supervision, or executive clemency;
- (2) a releasee; or

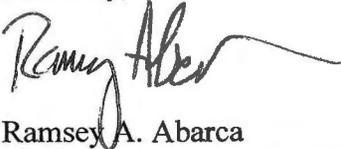

(3) a person directly identified in any proposed plan of release for an inmate.

Id. § 508.313(a); see id. § 508.001(9) (“releasee” means a person released on parole or to mandatory supervision). You state the information at issue consists of records of a releasee that are subject to section 508.313 of the Government Code. You state the requestor, in this instance, is not authorized to obtain this information under section 508.313(c). See id. § 508.313(c). Further, we find this information is not made public under chapter 62 of the Code of Criminal Procedure or section 552.029 of the Government Code. See id. § 508.313(e), (f). Accordingly, the department must withhold the information at issue, which you have marked, under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 508.313 of the Government Code. As you raise no further exceptions for the remaining information, it must be released.
