Dear Mr. Haratsis:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 598275.

The Texas Christian University Police Department (the "department"), which you represent, received a request for budget information for fiscal years 2015 and 2016. The department claims the submitted information is not subject to the Act. In the alternative, the department claims the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.110 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions the department claims and reviewed the submitted information.

Initially, we note the 84th Legislature added section 51.212(f) of the Education Code, which reads as follows:

(f) A campus police department of a private institution of higher education is a law enforcement agency and a governmental body for purposes of [the Act], only with respect to information relating solely to law enforcement activities.

Educ. Code § 51.212(f). You inform us the department is a campus police department of a private institution of higher education. See id. §§ 51.212(e), 61.003. Thus, you acknowledge the department is a governmental body for purposes of the Act, and information maintained by the department is subject to disclosure under the Act, to the extent such information relates solely to law enforcement activities. You indicate the submitted information is maintained by the department. However, you argue the submitted information is administrative information and does not relate “solely to law enforcement activities.” Upon review, we agree the submitted information is administrative in nature and does not relate solely to law enforcement. See id. § 51.212(f). Accordingly, we find the submitted information is not subject to disclosure pursuant to section 51.212(f), and need not be released to the requestor.¹

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open/orl_ruling_info.shtml, or call the Office of the Attorney General’s Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Sincerely,
