

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

July 26, 2016

Mr. Stephen D. Gates
Assistant City Attorney
City of Midland
P.O. Box 1152
Midland, Texas 79702-1152

OR2016-16792

Dear Mr. Gates:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 620328 (CoM ID# 19475).

The Midland Police Department (the "department") received a request for a criminal history record information ("CHRI") summary related to a named individual. You state the department has released some information to the requestor. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from public disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses section 261.201(a) of the Family Code, which provides:

(a) Except as provided by Section 261.203, the following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under [the Act] and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

(1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and

(2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

Fam. Code § 261.201(a). Upon review, we find case number 2008-08060047 was used or developed in an investigation of alleged child abuse or neglect. See id. §§ 101.003(a) (defining “child” for purposes of this section as person under 18 years of age who is not and has not been married or who has not had the disabilities of minority removed for general purposes), 261.001(1), (4) (defining “abuse” and “neglect” for purposes of chapter 261 of the Family Code). Therefore, we determine this information is generally confidential pursuant to section 261.201(a) of the Family Code. The department must generally withhold case number 2008-08060047 pursuant to section 552.101 of the Government Code and section 261.201 of the Family Code. However, section 261.201(a) provides information encompassed by that section may be disclosed “for purposes consistent with [the Family Code] and applicable federal or state law.” Id. § 261.201(a). Case number 2008-08060047 is also subject to section 58.007 of the Family Code, which constitutes applicable state law for purposes of section 261.201(a). Accordingly, we will address the applicability of section 58.007 to case number 2008-08060047, as well as the remaining information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses section 58.007 of the Family Code. Section 58.007 makes confidential juvenile law enforcement records relating to conduct that occurred on or after September 1, 1997. The relevant language of section 58.007 reads as follows:

(c) Except as provided by Subsection (d), law enforcement records and files concerning a child and information stored, by electronic means or otherwise, concerning the child from which a record or file could be generated may not be disclosed to the public and shall be:

- (1) if maintained on paper or microfilm, kept separate from adult files and records;
- (2) if maintained electronically in the same computer system as records or files relating to adults, be accessible under controls that are separate and distinct from controls to access electronic data concerning adults; and
- (3) maintained on a local basis only and not sent to a central state or federal depository, except as provided by Subchapters B, D, and E.

(e) Law enforcement records and files concerning a child may be inspected or copied by a juvenile justice agency as that term is defined by Section 58.101, a criminal justice agency as that term is defined by Section 411.082, Government Code, the child, and the child's parent or guardian.

Fam. Code § 58.007(c), (e). For purposes of section 58.007(c), "child" means a person who is ten years of age or older and under seventeen years of age at the time of the reported conduct. See id. § 51.02(2). All of the submitted information involves juvenile delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision that occurred after September 1, 1997. See id. § 51.03 (defining "delinquent conduct" and "conduct indicating a need for supervision" for purposes of Fam. Code § 58.007). Thus, the submitted information is generally confidential under section 58.007(c).

We note the requestor is a representative of the Probation Office of the United States District Court for the Western District of Texas (the "probation office"). Section 58.007(e) of the Family Code gives a "criminal justice agency as . . . defined by Section 411.082, Government Code" a right of access to juvenile law enforcement records. Id. § 58.007(e). Section 411.082 of the Government Code defines a "criminal justice agency" as including "a federal or state agency that is engaged in the administration of criminal justice under a statute or executive order and that allocates a substantial portion of its annual budget to the administration of criminal justice[.]" Gov't Code § 411.082(3)(A). We understand the probation office is a criminal justice agency as defined by section 411.082. See id. Therefore, the requestor generally has a right of access to the submitted information under section 58.007(e) of the Family Code. However, as noted above, case number 2008-08060047 is also subject to section 261.201(a) of the Family Code. Records subject to section 261.201 may be disclosed under applicable state law and for purposes consistent with the Family Code. See Fam. Code § 261.201(a). Section 58.007(e) is applicable state law allowing disclosure to the probation office. However, the department must determine whether releasing case number 2008-08060047 to the probation office is consistent with the Family Code. If the department determines the probation office does not intend to use case number 2008-08060047 for purposes consistent with the Family Code, then the department must withhold this information in its entirety pursuant to section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201(a) of the Family Code. See id. § 261.201(b)-(g), (k), (l) (listing entities authorized to receive section 261.201 information); Open Records Decision Nos. 655 (1997), 440 at 2 (1986) (construing predecessor statute). However, if the department determines the probation office intends to use case number 2008-08060047 for purposes consistent with the Family Code, then the requestor has a right of access to this information pursuant to section 58.007(e) of the Family Code. In any event, the requestor has a right of access to the remaining information under section 58.007(e), and the department may not withhold this information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007(c) of the Family Code.

We note, however, some of the submitted information contains motor vehicle record information subject to section 552.130 of the Government Code. Section 552.130 provides information relating to a driver's license or motor vehicle title or registration issued by an agency of this state or another state or country is excepted from public release. See Gov't Code § 552.130(a). Accordingly, the motor vehicle record information in the submitted information is generally confidential under section 552.130 of the Government Code.

However, as previously noted, the requestor has a statutory right to inspect the information pursuant to section 58.007(e). Therefore, we must address the conflict between the access provided under section 58.007(e) of the Family Code and the confidentiality provided under section 552.130 of the Government Code. Where information falls within both a general and a specific provision of law, the specific provision prevails over the general. See Horizon/CMS Healthcare Corp. v. Auld, 34 S.W.3d 887, 901 (Tex. 2000) ("more specific statute controls over the more general"); Cuellar v. State, 521 S.W.2d 277 (Tex. Crim. App. 1975) (under well-established rule of statutory construction, specific statutory provisions prevail over general ones). In this instance, section 58.007(e) generally applies to all juvenile law enforcement records, while section 552.130 specifically protects motor vehicle record information. Although a specific statutory right of access prevails over general exceptions to disclosure under the Act, because section 552.130 has its own access provisions, we conclude section 552.130 is not a general exception under the Act. Thus, we find the confidentiality provided by section 552.130 is more specific than the general right of access provided by section 58.007(e). Accordingly, in releasing the information at issue to the requestor, the department must withhold the motor vehicle record information we marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code.

In summary, if the department determines the probation office intends to use case number 2008-08060047 for purposes consistent with the Family Code, then the department must release it to the requestor pursuant to section 58.007(e) of the Family Code. Otherwise, the department must withhold case number 2008-08060047 in its entirety pursuant to section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201(a) of the Family Code. Except for the motor vehicle record information we marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code, the department must release the remaining information to the requestor pursuant to section 58.007(e) of the Family Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
