Mr. Gregory A. Shumpert

OR2016-17513

Dear Mr. Shumpert:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 621033.

The Kaufman County Sheriff's Office (the "sheriff's office"), which you represent, received a request for all reports related to a specified incident involving a named individual. You state you will release some information to the requestor. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.108(a) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if: (1) release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]" Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(1) must explain how and why the release of the information at issue would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706, 710 (Tex. 1977). The sheriff's office states the submitted information relates to a pending criminal investigation. Based on this representation, we conclude the release of the submitted information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ'g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177, 186-87 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (delineating law enforcement interests present in active cases), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). Therefore, section 552.108(a)(1) is applicable to the submitted information.

However, section 552.108 does not except from disclosure basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime. Gov't Code § 552.108(c). Basic information refers to the information held to be public in Houston Chronicle. See 531 S.W.2d at 186-88; Open Records Decision No. 127 at 3-4 (1976) (summarizing types of information deemed public by Houston Chronicle). Thus, with the exception of basic information, which you state you will release, the sheriff's office may generally withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.

However, the requestor is with the Enforcement Division of the Texas Board of Nursing (the "board"). Section 411.125 of the Government Code provides the following:

[The board] is entitled to obtain from the [Department of Public Safety ("DPS")] criminal history record information [{"CHRI"}] maintained by [DPS] that relates to a person who:

- (1) is an applicant for or the holder of a license issued by the board;
- (2) has requested a determination of eligibility for a license from the board; or
- (3) is subject to investigation by the board in connection with a complaint or formal charge against the person.

Gov't Code § 411.125. In addition, section 411.087(a)(2) of the Government Code reads as follows:

(a) [A] person, agency, department, political subdivision, or other entity that is authorized by this subchapter or subchapter E-1 to obtain from the [DPS] [CHRI] maintained by the [DPS] that relates to another person is authorized to:

- (2) obtain from any other criminal justice agency in this state [CHRI] maintained by that criminal justice agency that relates to that person.

Id. § 411.087(a)(2). CHRI is defined as "information collected about a person by a criminal justice agency that consists of identifiable descriptions and notations of arrests, detentions, indictments, informations, and other formal criminal charges and their dispositions." Id. § 411.082(2). In this instance, the submitted information contains CHRI. However, the requestor does not indicate, and we are not otherwise able to determine, whether the arrestee in this case is an applicant for or a holder of a license from the board, has requested a determination of eligibility for a license from the board, or is subject to investigation by the board in connection with a complaint or formal charge against the arrestee. Accordingly, we must rule in the alternative. If the arrestee is an applicant for or a holder of a license from the board, has requested a determination of eligibility for a license from the board, or is subject to investigation by the board in connection with a complaint or formal charge against the arrestee, then the board is authorized to obtain the arrestee's CHRI in the submitted information pursuant to sections 411.087(a)(2) and 411.125 of the Government Code. See id. §§ 411.087(a)(2), .125. In that instance, with the exception of the basic information and CHRI pertaining to the named individual, which must be released, the sheriff's office may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. See Open Records Decision No. 451 (1986) (specific statutory right of access provisions overcome general exceptions to disclosure under the Act). However, if the arrestee in this case is not an applicant for or a holder of a license from the board, has not requested a determination of eligibility for a license from the board, or is not subject to investigation by the board in connection with a complaint or formal charge against the arrestee, then the board is not authorized to obtain the named individual's CHRI in the submitted information pursuant to sections 411.087(a)(2) and 411.125, and the sheriff's office need not release such information to this requestor. In this instance, with the exception of the basic information, which must be released, the sheriff's office may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(1).

In summary, to the extent the board has a right of access to CHRI pursuant to sections 411.087(a)(2) and 411.125 of the Government Code, then with the exception of the basic information and CHRI pertaining to the named individual, which must be released, the sheriff's office may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. To the extent the board does not have such a right of access to CHRI, then with the exception of basic information, which must be released, the sheriff's office may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.
