

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

October 13, 2016

Ms. June B. Harden
Assistant Attorney General
Assistant Public Information Coordinator
Office of the Attorney General
P.O. Box 12548
Austin, Texas 78711-2548

OR2016-23066

Dear Ms. Harden:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 630708 (PIR No. 16-44842).

The Office of the Attorney General (the "OAG") received a request for information pertaining to a specified investigation. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.<sup>1</sup>

Section 552.108(a) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if: (1) release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]" Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(1). By its terms, section 552.108 applies only to a law enforcement agency or a prosecutor. This office has concluded, however, that where an incident involving alleged criminal conduct is still under active investigation or prosecution, section 552.108 may be invoked by any proper custodian of information that relates to the incident. See Open Records Decision Nos. 474 at 4-5 (1987), 372 (1983). Where a non-law enforcement agency has custody of information relating to the pending case of a law enforcement agency, the custodian of records may withhold the information if it provides this office with a demonstration that the information relates to a pending criminal case and a representation from the law enforcement agency that it wishes to have the information withheld.

<sup>1</sup>We assume the representative sample of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent that those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

You state the submitted information consists of investigative records compiled by the Texas Rangers while investigating an Open Meetings Act complaint. You inform us a special prosecutor was named to handle the matter. You state the special prosecutor informed the OAG the requested information pertains to an ongoing criminal investigation by the Texas Rangers and potential prosecution by the special prosecutor. You further state the special prosecutor asks the OAG to withhold the submitted information from disclosure so as not to interfere with these law enforcement interests. Based on these representations and our review, we agree release of the submitted information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ'g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). Accordingly, the OAG may withhold the submitted information pursuant to section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code on behalf of the special prosecutor.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
