Dear Mr. Brown:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 632803.

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice (the "department") received a request for the execution protocol and information relating the drugs to be used in a specified execution. You state you have released some information. You claim portions of the submitted information are excepted from disclosure under sections 552.1081 and 552.136 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the information you have submitted.

Section 552.1081 states:

Information is excepted from the requirements of [the Act] if it contains identifying information under Article 43.14, Code of Criminal Procedure, including that of:

- (1) any person who participates in an execution procedure, including a person who uses, supplies, or administers a substance during the execution; and
- (2) any person or entity that manufactures, transports, tests, procures, compounds, prescribes, dispenses, or provides a substance or supplies used in an execution.

Gov't Code § 552.1081. Article 43.14(b) of the Code of Criminal Procedure states the name, address, and other identifying information of certain persons or entities involved in execution procedures are confidential. Crim. Proc. Code art. 43.14(b). You state portions of the submitted information consist of the identifying information of the department's pharmacy and laboratory used for the procurement and testing of execution drugs. Upon review, we find the information we marked consists of the identifying information of entities and persons that participate in execution procedures or manufacture, transport, test, procure, compound, prescribe, or provide supplies or substances used in executions. Thus, we find the department must withhold the information we have marked under section 552.1081.

The remaining information contains access device numbers subject to section 552.136 of the Government Code. Section 552.136 provides, "[n]otwithstanding any other provision of [the Act], a credit card, debit card, charge card, or access device number that is collected, assembled, or maintained by or for a governmental body is confidential." Gov't Code § 552.136(b); see id. § 552.136(a) (defining "access device"). Upon review, the department must withhold the access device number we marked under section 552.136 of the Government Code.

In summary, the department must withhold the information we marked under section 552.1081. The department also must withhold the information we marked under section 552.136. The remaining information must be released.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
